

RUMOR PERSISTS THAT KITCHENER IS TO BE RETIRED AS ARMY HEAD

London, November 6.—The Post says that Earl Kitchener, secretary for War, has been entrusted with an important mission to the near East and has already departed from London.

"It is generally believed," says the Post, "That Earl Kitchener's business will necessitate a stay so prolonged that it will be necessary to fill his place at the war office before long."

"It is true that he has not resigned, but the importance of his present errand makes it certain that his resignation is only delayed."

"Reiteration of the report that Kitchener had placed his resignation in the hands of the king has brought forth an authorized categorical statement to the contrary."

SERBIAN CAPITAL HAS SURRENDERED

Nish and More Than Half of Serbia Now in Hands of Invaders Who Are Drawing Net About the Serbs.

CLOSER UNION OF ALLIES IS SOUGHT BY LORD KITCHENER

Bulgars and Austro-German Forces Continue Rapid Advance as Serbs Fall Back Toward Montenegro—Resignation of Greek Cabinet is Accepted—Roumania Stepping Into the Game—Russ Defeated on Stripa River—German Subs Creep Past Gibraltar.

By Associated Press.
Berlin, wireless to Sayville, L. I., November 6.—The capture of Nish, Serbia, by the Bulgarians was announced officially here today.

The town of Kralievo, 35 miles southwest of Kraguyevatz, also has been captured by the Germans, who are pursuing the Serbs to the east of that point.

The Germans have reached the Zupanyevac district and in the Morava valley have pursued the Serbs beyond Obrevsicirica.

The Bulgarian conquest of Nish was effected after three days' of hard fighting.

In these engagements the Bulgarians captured 350 Serbs and two cannon.

Near Lukovo the Bulgarians defeated the Serbs and in the vicinity of Sokobanya also they won a victory, taking more than 500 prisoners and six cannon.

Bulgarian and German forces got in touch with each other near Kri-vir.

Field Marshal Earl Kitchener had gone to the eastern theater of war. The official statement read:

"Earl Kitchener, at the request of his colleagues, has left England for a short visit to the eastern theater of war."

It is generally assumed that Earl Kitchener has gone with the immediate object of rearranging the military personnel at the front and effecting, in conjunction with the allied nations, some central organization to control the scheme of military operations.

To unravel the tangles in the east in consultation with Great Britain's war partners, will be likely to occupy his entire attention for some time.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

By Associated Press.
Paris, November 6.—The newspapers announce that King Constantine has definitely accepted the resignation of the Zaimis cabinet, says a Havas dispatch from Athens.

ROUMANIA TO DISARM RUSSIAN SUPPLY BOATS

By Associated Press.
London, November 6.—Roumanian authorities have taken the necessary steps to bring into Roumanian harbors and disarm vessels flying the Russian flag which are loaded with arms and ammunition for Serbia, says a semi-official statement issued at Bucharest and received here by wireless from Berlin.

RUSS ARE DEFEATED

By Associated Press.
Berlin, November 6.—The Austro-German forces in Galicia are said by the War Office today to have won a further victory over the Russians in the fighting along the Stripa river.

er. The Russians were thrown back to their old positions on the east bank of the river.

In the recent fighting there 50 officers and 5,000 Russians have been captured.

USE GIBRALTAR STRAITS

By Associated Press.
Paris, November 6.—The straits of Gibraltar have again been passed by German submarines which on Thursday sank two French and one Italian steamship. The crew of one vessel is missing.

TAKE 3000 SERBS

By Associated Press.
Berlin, wireless, November 6.—Capture of Varvarin, on the Morava river in Serbia about 40 miles northwest of Nish, was announced by the German War Office today.

More than 3,000 Serbs were taken prisoners.

KITCHENER SAILS

By Associated Press.
London, November 6.—The Post says that Earl Kitchener, secretary for war, has been entrusted with an important mission to the near East and has already departed from London.

LONDON GLOBE IS THROTTLED

By Associated Press.
London, November 6.—The printing plant of the London Globe, together with copies of the issues of yesterday and today, were seized by the police this afternoon.

Reiteration today that Secretary Kitchener had resigned, notwithstanding official denials, seemed to have decided the authorities on the suppression of the paper.

The war policy of the British government, in respect to both the Dardanelles expedition and the Serbian campaign, has been subjected to severe criticism in England, and if the statement of the Post is correct the war secretary presumably has been sent to the near East to determine, by personal inspection, the proper policy for Great Britain.

FIEND HURLS DEADLY BOMB AT CONSULATE

By Associated Press.
New York, November 6.—The third attempt within a year to wreck the offices of the Italian consul general with a bomb was made today.

The missile, said to have been hurled from a nearby roof, struck the pavement near the building, exploded with a roar that was heard for blocks, ripped apart the cobblestones, rocked the neighborhood and filled the street with a rain of broken glass, but caused slight damage otherwise and failed to injure anyone.

The consul general and his staff were in their offices at the time, with 150 Italian reservists.

An Italian boy, found on the roof of a house, was taken to police headquarters.

After an investigation, police said they thought the bomb had been dropped in the street by a man who became frightened when he saw a patrolman standing near by.

FACTORY BURNS TWENTY PERISH

Wooden Factory in Brooklyn Destroyed By Flames Which Take Lives of 20 Men and Women and Cause Serious Injury to 50 Others.

By Associated Press.
New York, November 6.—Twenty men and girls were killed and more than 50 others injured, according to the police, in a fire that swept through a four-story wooden factory building in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn today.

Within a short time after the fire was discovered eight girls had been burned to death on the fire escape, while a number of others, police said, had met a similar fate before they could reach the escapes.

The fire started close to the stairs on the first floor and spread so speedily that escape by the stairs from the upper floors was entirely cut off.

The upper floors were occupied by a shirt concern and a cloak manufacturing company.

Between 350 and 400 operatives, mostly young girls, were at work there, it was stated, when the fire broke out.

It was among these employees that most of the casualties occurred.

CARRANZA CONCENTRATES FORCES FOR BLOW TO OUST GEN. VILLA

By Associated Press.
Washington, November 6.—Carranza forces, to the north and south of Villa's retreating army, are concentrating for a blow which the defector leaders hope will end the strife in northern Mexico.

Major General Funston reported today that General Obregon, Carranza's chief commander, would arrive at Douglas, Arizona, to begin organizing a campaign.

Funston has been informed that Villa demanded and received $25,000 in gold from the Cananea Copper Company and has called on the Montezuma Copper Company and the El Tigre Company for $25,000 each.

The last two companies, American concerns, refused to comply, and Villa stated that unless they did he would destroy their property.

The Montezuma company has a plant valued at a million dollars.

Villa told the Cananea Cattle Co. he proposed to take its entire herd of 30,000 cattle for use of his army.

MILLIONAIRE DIES TODAY

By Associated Press.
Philadelphia, November 6.—P. A. B. Widner, 81, widely known financier, died at his home at Elkins' park near here today. He had been ill for some time.

He was a dominant factor in the street railway systems of this city, New York, Chicago and other cities.

Mr. Widner started his business career as a butcher. He accumulated a fortune estimated at more than $60,000,000 in the street railway business.

DEFENSE POLICY MENACES PEACE

Words of Bryan, Who Attacks Wilson's Position.

AT ISSUE WITH PRESIDENT

Nebraska Issues Statement Sharply Assailing Preparedness Plan Outlined by Wilson in New York Speech—Program Held a Departure From American Traditions and Reversal of Nation's Policy.

Washington, Nov. 6.—In a statement attacking the position taken by President Wilson in his speech before the Manhattan club in New York city, former Secretary of State Bryan formally opened the battle against "preparedness."

Mr. Bryan said the president's program of army and navy increases violated the principles of Christianity. Furthermore, he criticized his former chief for enunciating these doctrines at a club composed of men who he termed "mammon-worshippers."

Mr. Bryan said in part: "The plan which the president proposes is not only a departure from our traditions, but a reversal of our national policy. It is not only a menace to our peace and safety, but a challenge to the spirit of Christianity which teaches us to influence others by example rather than by exciting fear."

"The president will not assume that he is more deeply interested in the welfare of his country than the millions who elected him to be, for the time being, their spokesman. And if, as he evidently believes, he is giving voice to the opinions of his countrymen, he is, of course, anxious to have them as frank with him as he has been with them—how otherwise can he know whether he represents or misrepresents their views? He has announced a policy which has never before been adopted in this country and never endorsed by any party in the country, and he has no way of knowing, until he hears from the people, whether he is correct or not."

NATIONAL DEFENSE PROGRAM OUTLINED

Secretary of War Garrison Issues Statement.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Details of the proposed new military policy were formally announced by Secretary of War Garrison here. The secretary issued a statement disclosing that the new policy was drafted with a view to making a plan consistent with existing institutions and public sentiment in the United States rather than one which should be perfect from a purely military point of view.

Mr. Garrison points out that there is no possibility at present of securing the administration of this country of a military system based on universal military service, upon conscription or upon national control of the public school system. It is understood that this statement reflects the nature of the disagreement between the secretary and the general staff of the army, whose plan for a military policy was rejected by the secretary in favor of a much more moderate scheme.

For the first year Mr. Garrison estimates the operation of his plan will cost a total of $136,000,000, including $111,000,000 for the regular army, $15,000,000 for the citizen army and $10,000,000, double the current appropriation, for the militia. When the system is in complete operation he estimates that it will cost $182,000,000, as follows: For the regular army, $127,000,000; for the naval guard, $10,000,000; for the citizen army, $45,000,000. In addition, Mr. Garrison proposes to spend a total of $104,000,000 in the next four years on the accumulation of reserve material of all sorts and $80,000,000 during the same period for improvement of the coast defenses. According to his estimate the total army budget for the first year will be $182,000,000, increasing each year to the fourth year, when it would be $228,000,000, and decreasing thereafter to $182,000,000 a year. The present budget of the army is about $105,000,000.

SUFFRAGE PARTY AT WHITE HOUSE

Washington, Nov. 6.—President Wilson is to give a woman suffrage afternoon party Dec. 6 and the guests of honor will be two leaders in the Congressional union, Miss Francis Jolliffe and Mrs. Sara Bardfield, western women, who will take to Washington the signatures of 500,000 women voters who want their sisters to be enfranchised by federal amendment. Mr. Wilson's secretary has requested Miss Alice Paul, head of the Congressional union, to furnish him with the names of 300 prominent suffragists whom he could invite to meet Miss Jolliffe and Mrs. Bardfield.

FIRST EXAM. IS ANNULLED

Columbus, Nov. 6.—Governor Willis and the state civil service commission annulled the examination held Sept. 29 for superintendent of the Women's reformatory at Marysville. No date has been fixed for another examination. The twenty-one women who qualified in the examination will be required to take another, open to any and all applicants, if they desire to stay in the race. They will not, however, be required to pay the examination fee again.

The Federation of Women's Clubs, which is backing the candidacy of Mrs. Sara C. Douglas of Lima for the superintendency, protested the regularity of the first examination on the ground that the civil service commission had accepted the application of Mrs. Cornelia B. Kennedy of Findlay on the day of the examination; also on the ground that fees of a number of applicants were not in the commission's hands before the examination.

A FARM FOR EVERY DESERVING MEXICAN

First Chief Carranza on His Agrarian Policy.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Nov. 6.—In his first protracted interview, First Chief Carranza explained in detail his main plans for the administration of Mexican affairs. Carranza was seen in his temporary capital at Piedras Negras. Throughout the discussion one point stood out, the position taken against special privilege, whether Mexican, American or European; Carranza left no room for doubt on this point.

Some of his policies are noteworthy, particularly his agrarian policy. From the vast lands which the government now holds and is about to acquire Carranza intends to provide the deserving Mexican with sufficient ground for a farm which will make him independent if he works. It will not be given away, but will be sold.

In his whole discussion the general scrupulously avoided the word "confiscation." The operation by which the Villistas and Huertistas have lost millions of acres of land, notably the Madero holdings, is termed an embargo. "There were debts on these properties," said Carranza, quickly. "When a man owes civil debts in the form of taxes, for example, all his available properties are sequestered until the debts have been liquidated." And this is his answer to the large land owners who for years have been dodging taxes, refusing to develop their property, and thus have been assisting the enemies of the Constitutional head.

Season of Pleasure and Profit

The beautiful autumn weather continues although the calendar figures tell us that we are nearly one-fourth of the way through "chill November," the month which usually makes good on the description of the poets as the season of "scurly blasts" and cold rains.

Rarely, if ever, has there been in this section such a prolonged season of fine weather. It is just what we have dreamed of and what our fancy has pictured all during the peculiarly unpleasant summer season.

If preceding the coming of October we could have been assured of a week of dry, bright, sunny weather folks hereabouts would have been glad to compromise and been content with that much of a payment for the disappointments of spring and summer. Yet here we are already in the fifth week and, human like, we are accepting it all as a matter of course with but little more than passing comment in praise and gratitude.

Not only is this weather a joy to those who only get out occasionally—it is a matter of dollars to the farmers. The work of cutting the corn and seeding has gone forward with unprecedented activity and the amount of work done has footed up an enormous total. Plowing for next season's corn crop is now being done which indicates that the farmer folks are not only up with their work but for the first time this season are well ahead and accumulating a good credit balance of work done upon which to draw when next spring's work payments begin to fall due.

The Lyceum Course

Among other causes which the people of this city have for congratulating themselves is that Washington is again to have a course of lectures and entertainments at Grace church, extending through the winter months.

For a time, during the spring and summer months, there existed serious doubt as to whether the committee would again undertake the task of providing the people of the city with the usual series of high class entertainments, following a custom of eighteen years' standing.

Indeed at one time the lecture course committee determined not to follow the usual custom. As soon as the determination of the committee became known by the public, the demand made upon the individual members of the committee was so insistent and emphatic that a new organization was formed, known as the Washington Lyceum Course and arrangements were concluded which insure a high class of entertainments at Grace church this winter.

Washington folks are not unmindful of the entertainments and the benefits to be derived from these entertainments. The city is in a peculiar condition regarding entertainments any way. There is little else here save the moving picture shows in the way of instructive entertainment and our people would object strenuously to being compelled to go through the long winter season without the lecture course. They did object and made their objections known and the present course is the result.

People from all over the county, in these days of machines, patronize the Lyceum entertainments and their objections too swelled the chorus when there was a prospect that the course would be abandoned.

But all danger is passed. We are to have a Lyceum course and a good one, and because we are, every citizen has reason to shake hands with himself.

The Lack of Revenue

Shortage of money has been the excuse universally offered for failure to properly conduct public affairs in any and every line when failures have occurred (and they have been numerous) in Ohio during the last four years.

It was supposed, at the time the one per cent tax rate limit law was enacted, that a reappraisal of real property, bringing that class of property on to the tax duplicate at its real value in money, would result in the return of practically all of the moneys, credits and other intangible property for taxation and that the tax duplicate, so greatly increased, would furnish the basis to produce sufficient revenue at a reduced rate.

Unfortunately, however, the moneys and credits did not come out of hiding and the amount of revenue obtainable under the rate limit law has in fact proven to be insufficient to meet demands. The same shortage in receipts exists in many rural sections also.

The people are generous, however, and are not averse to issuing bonds, providing for extra taxlevies or any thing else within the limits of the law, which will aid in securing needed funds.

In this county the people Tuesday voted an extra tax levy of two mills for good road purposes. The officials told us what they could and would do if given the "wherewithal" to do it. The people have granted their request and its up to the officials now to make good on their promises.

Fayette county roads need attention, need it badly. Now as soon as the money begins to come in we are justified in expecting some practical results in road improvements—some relief from present conditions.

HAVE I DONE WELL?

And they were stronger hands than mine
That digged the Ruby from the earth.
More cunning brains that made it worth
The large desire of a king;
And bolder hearts that through the brine
Went down the perfect pearl to bring.

Lo, I have wrought in common clay
Rude figures of a rough-hewn race;
For pearls strew not the market place
In this town of my banishment.
Where, with the shifting dust I play
And eat the bread of discontent.

Yet is there life in that I make—
Oh, Thou who knowest, turn and see
As Thou hast power over me,
So have I power over these.
Because I wrought them for Thy sake,
And breathed in them mine agonies.

Small mirth was in the making. Now
I lift the cloth that cloaks the clay
And, wearied, at Thy feet I lay
My wares ere I go forth to sell.
The long bazar will praise—but
Thou—
Heart of my Heart, have I done well?

On the face of it it is safe to say that if the law gets upon the statute books and an appropriation is voted it will be up to the citizens to come forward and train under the best of auspices and to make good when the long roll is sounded.

DADDY LONGLEGS

He is Harmless, He Doesn't Bite, and He Isn't a Spider.

Don't call a daddy longlegs a spider, because he isn't. Spiders bite and have poison glands. This insect is perfectly harmless. It isn't just pleasant to have one of them crawl up your arm or down your neck, but you're just as safe as when he isn't there—ten times safer than the insect is just at that moment. He's not only harmless, but so common that you'll find him almost any place in the world where it's warm enough for him to exist.

In good old American language we call him daddy longlegs. Maybe you've heard him called harvest man or grand-father graybeard. He has eight long legs bowed in the middle, so that when he's standing up his little round body almost touches the ground where he walks. He also has two eyes and two pincers, which you will see if you examine him closely.

From midsummer to late autumn daddy longlegs scampers about over rocks, tree trunks, gets in the picnic marshallade in the park, crawls up the fisherman's neck along the stream, collects in barns and has a general good time. Few of them survive the winter.

In Mammoth cave, Kentucky, the daddy longlegs are blind.—Philadelphia North American.

LEMBERG RICH IN NAMES.

It Has Had Twenty-seven Different Ones in Its Career.

Many cities are known by more than one name, but it is given to few to rejoice in more than half a dozen distinctive cognomens. But the historic Gallician city of Lemberg has been known at one time or another by no less than twenty-seven different appellations.

According to the Polish Bulletin, the ancient Ruthenian names for Lwow were Lwow, Lwiw, Lwihrad, Lwihorod, Ilwiv; the Germans called it Lemberg, Lemberg, Lemburg, Loewenburg; the Latin and pseudo Latin names include Leburga, Lamburga, Leontopolis, Leone, Livivia, Leopolda; in the thirteenth century it was known to the Greeks as Lithon and Liffada.

The patriarchs of Constantinople, Alexandria and Jerusalem referred to it as Leovios and Leonopolis; the Turks call it in their books Illi, Ilbo, Ilbot, Ilbow, Ilbadir; the Armenians gave to it the name of Ilof; the Russians have lately baptized it Lwoff.

The real name of the city, it is asserted, is the Polish one of Lwow, which literally translated means Lion City.

Why Boiled Water Freezes Easily.

Water which is hot, of course, cannot freeze until it has parted with its heat, but water that has been boiled will, other things being equal, freeze sooner than water which has not been boiled. A slight disturbance of water disposes it to freeze more rapidly, and this is the cause which accelerates the freezing of boiled water. The water that has been boiled has lost the air naturally contained in it, which on exposure to the atmosphere it begins again to attract and absorb. During this process of absorption a motion is necessarily produced among its particles, slight certainly and imperceptible, yet probably sufficient to accelerate its congelation. In unboiled water this disturbance does not exist. Indeed, water when kept perfectly still can be reduced several degrees below the freezing point without its becoming ice.

Knew What He Was Doing.

At the time of the great disaster in Martinique the Italian bark Orsolina was taking on a cargo of sugar there. Her captain was accustomed to volcanoes, and he did not like the appearance of Mont Pelee. Not half his cargo was on board, he decided to sail for home.

"The volcano is all right," argued the shippers. "Finish your loading."

"I don't know anything about Mont Pelee," said the captain. "but if Vesuvius looked that way I'd get out of Naples, and I'm going to get right out of here."

The shippers threatened him with arrest. They sent customs officers to detain him, but the captain persisted in leaving. Twenty-four hours later the shippers and the customs officers lay dead in the ruins of St. Pierre.

Matrimony.

The primary impulse of all creatures is possession. It is this that causes a chicken to tear around the yard with a piece of meat in its mouth and all the other chickens after it. It hasn't time, but the instinct of possession makes him grab and keep it. The same is noticeable among beasts. They like to get a great piece of meat in their mouths and then growl. It is this instinct in man which provokes him to matrimony. He wants something to guard and growl over, so he seeks a hollow tree, a cave or a house and a wife.—Pittsburgh Press.

"Oh, I tell them they are too pretty that the star wants to be the only handsome woman in the company."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

TRUE FOSSIL FORESTS

Yellowstone Park's Array of Stony Relics of Volcano Activity.

Remarkable fossil forests exist in Yellowstone park, the most remarkable, it is believed, of the several fossil forests which have been discovered—there are others in Egypt, in California and in Arizona—because in the Yellowstone most of the trees were entombed in their original upright position and not found recumbent and scattered about the ground.

In Arizona, for instance, the fossilized trunks have evidently been carried a long distance from where they originally grew.

In the Yellowstone the trees now stand where they grew and where they are entombed by the outpouring of various volcanic materials.

Now as the softer rocks surrounding them are gradually worn away they are left standing erect on the steep hillsides, just as they stood when they were living. In fact it is difficult at a little distance to distinguish some of these fossil trunks from the lichen covered stumps of kindred living species. Such an aggregation of fossil trunks is therefore well entitled to be called a true fossil forest.

It should not be supposed, however, that these trees still retain their limbs and similar branches, for the mass of volcanic material falling on them stripped them down to bare, upright trunks.—Exchange.

HELP FOR HOMELY MEN.

Facial Decorations and Other Ways to Tone Down Ugliness.

If my face is too wide a beard lengthens it; if my face is too narrow it expands as if by magic with the addition of what have sometimes been affectionately called "mutton chops" or "siders."

If my nose projects, almost like a nose trying to escape from a face to which it has been sentenced for life, a pair of large, handsome mustaches will provide a proper entourage—a nest, so to speak, on which the nose rests contentedly, almost like a sitting hen; if my nose retreats backward into my face the aesthetic solution is obviously galvans.

A stout man can do wonders with his appearance by adopting a pointed beard and a suit of clothes, shirt, necktie and stockings with pronounced vertical stripes. A thin man, on the other hand, becomes at once substantial in effect without being gross if he cultivates side whiskers and wears a suit of clothes, shirt, cravat and stockings with pronounced horizontal stripes.

If my face lacks fierceness and dynamic force it needs a brisk, arrogant mustache, or if it has too much of these qualities a long, sad, drooping mustache will counterbalance them.—Atlantic Monthly.

A Queen Who Was a King.

Only once in the history of the world has a queen been officially known as a king. This was in Hungary, when the Hungarians gave the name of king to their Queen Mary in order to avoid the infamy which the laws of that country cast upon those who are governed by women. She bore the title of King Mary till her marriage with Sigismund. After that she took the title of queen.

Good Role.

Johnnie Webbs was regarded as the town simpleton, but occasionally he was gifted with a flash of keenest repartee, as a city visitor discovered to his discomfort. "What part do you perform in the great drama of life?" he asked. "I mind my own business," replied Mr. Webbs.—Argonaut.

COST OF NEW DISTRICT HOSPITAL TO BE $35,000

The District Tuberculosis Hospital, to be erected on the Carlisle hill near Chillicothe by the counties of Fayette, Ross, Pike, Scioto, Highland and Jackson will cost $35,000. This was decided upon at a meeting held in Chillicothe and presided over by President of the Board, Harry P. Brown, of this city.

The amount to be expended was fixed by resolution which was adopted by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees, and the cost will be prorated among the six counties according to their respective tax duplicates, and the date by which the money is to be paid in the hands of the Board is not later than January, 1916.

The resolution will be referred to the various boards of county commissioners for their approval, and work will begin on the institution as soon after January 1, 1916 as possible. The entire sum must be in the hands of the Board before the work is started, it is announced.

The Board accepted an offer made by the Women's Sewing Circle, of the Walnut Street M. E. Church, Chillicothe, to outfit a Ross county ward in the institution. It is understood that other churches in the various counties are considering a similar action.

Another meeting will be held in the near future for taking up the question of the Administration building, and it is expected that plans will be considered at that meeting.

OLD MAN TELLS PITIFUL STORY

So feeble that he could hardly walk, aged eighty-one years, and without a cent of money in his pocket, Edward Daley was put off of the C. H. & D. train Thursday afternoon and left stranded far from his destination, Jackson, Ky.

The old man tottered up town, reaching the home of Dr. C. A. Teeters on N. Main street, when he fell unconscious on the sidewalk.

There are always good samaritans and the old man was carried into Dr. Teeters' office and given medical aid. Upon reviving he told the pitiful story of long months of illness in the hospital of Fargo, N. D., costing him all but a few dollars of his savings of $11,000. Having relatives in Jackson, Ky., he decided to go there, expecting to ride as far as his little money would permit and walk the rest of the way.

He had enough to reach this city and was starting up town to gain information when he fell unconscious.

He seemed to be a nice old fellow, and had been a railroad bridge carpenter most of his life.

Dr. Teeters' sympathies were deeply aroused and he entertained the old man at his own home over night and was instrumental in making up a purse sufficient to buy him a ticket to Jackson, Ky.

SONS OF VETERANS WILL COMPLIMENT VETERANS

The Sons of Veterans arranged at a largely attended meeting of the order Friday night to give a complimentary entertainment to honor the Ladies' Circle G. A. R., The Women's Relief Corps, the B. O. F. Post and the John M. Bell Post, on the evening of November 19th, at the Wonderland Theater.

A special film, "The Blood of Our Fathers," will be put on; Miss Forrest Allen of Milledgeville reads, and Miss Jean Hollingsworth sings.

It will be an entertainment of patriotic character most appreciated by the veterans and the auxiliaries.

LOCAL PHOTOGRAPHER HAS "DAYLIGHT" LAMP

Photographer Delbert C. Hays has just installed the General Electric Company's latest "daylight" lamp for use in taking pictures after night and which gives fully as satisfactory results as daylight photography.

The new light is a 3,000 candle power nitrogen, and the powerful rays are so filtered by shades that daylight effects are produced probably for the first time. The light is noiseless, safe and a great improvement over the old style arc lamp formerly used for photographic purposes.

NO. 107 NEARLY MEETS DISASTER

B. & O. passenger train No. 107, due in this city at 6:13 p. m., was nearly wrecked between Sabina and Wilmington, Thursday evening, when the connecting rod on the big engine was broken and the engine badly damaged.

The break occurred while the train was moving at a high rate of speed, but the engine stuck to the rails and was brought to a stop within 300 yards of the place where the break occurred. A serious wreck nearly resulted.

It was eleven o'clock before the train was pulled into Wilmington.

AMATEUR PLAY AROUSES INTEREST

A Hundred and Fifty Local People Will Take Part in Fi Fi of the Toy Shop at the Empire, Monday.

"Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop," to be given at the Empire Theater next Monday night for the benefit of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, promises to be one of the biggest drawing cards of the winter season.

It is a musical extravaganza quite new and out of the ordinary, and as clean as it is pretty.

A hundred and fifty well known young people and children of Washington are in the cast; each star shines in his or her particular role and the musical numbers are particularly catchy.

The fantastic story of the play runs that Bonnie, played by Miss Ruth Grafton, the daughter of Tack Hammer, the old toymaker, wandering in the woods near her father's shop at the close of day, is cast into a magic sleep by the Sandman (Roscoe Kibler).

During her wonderful dreams of the Toy Shop Aurelia, a retired fairy personated by Mrs. Alex. H. Ballard, presents her with a bottle of fairy smelling salts with which she brings to life all the inmates of the Toy Shop. The Toy Folk have many wonderful, weird and beautiful adventures and the audience will enjoy their amusing revels and pretty scenes no less than does the dreaming Bonnie.

It is wonderfully entertaining to see well known people in the roles of the dolls and some of the acting is unusually clever amateur work.

The cast of characters includes, with Bonnie, the Fairy, and the Sandman, the old toymaker, Walter Patton; Ink Spot, black doll, Jane Paul; Fi-Fi, the French doll, Ada Woodward; Prince Lollypop, Mortimer Clasgens; Lieutenant Tinheart, Dick Saxton; Captain Barnacle, Emerson Chapman; Looney Rag Doll, Dorothy Saxton; A Laughing Doll's Head, Wanda Wolford; the Man in the Moon, Howard Gray; A Talking

Doll, Marie Tharp; Bo Peep, Miss Jessie Leavell; a Japanese Doll, Maxine Kibler; Two Clowns, Earl Peterson and Rudolph Wolfe; Solo Dancer, Pauline Pine.

Then there are the Jumping Jacks Noah's Ark Animals, China Dolls, Paper Dolls, Live Letter Blocks, Bridesmaids, Fairies, Flower Girls, who put on all kinds of pretty fancy dances, and specialties.

Mrs. Mortimer Clasgens is the accompanist.

The play is put on under the personal direction of Harold M. Swift, and has been given with marked success in a number of adjoining towns as well as larger cities.

The seat sale is now on and it is expected that the house will be sold out by Monday night.

WHEN IS ROAD LEVY EFFECTIVE?

When does the two-mill road levy become effective?

This is the question which is now being investigated and will be announced within a short time after a ruling has been obtained.

It will then be known whether the first installment will be collected at the December collection, or next June.

WHISTLER'S BREAKFASTS.

They Were Famous Functions When the Artist Was In Funds.

An invitation to one of Mr. Whistler's "breakfasts" was prized by many persons almost as much as a royal command, more by some. Mr. Whistler brought together about his dainty, long, narrow breakfast table in its long, narrow room with pale yellow washed walls a symposium of those persons in London most noted for wit or endowed with rare original talent of some kind. Sprinkled here and there for the sake, no doubt, of half tones were others whose chief qualification was the power of chastened and judicious appreciation.

These symposiums were held by Whistler in his splendid studio, 33 Tite street, at present the studio of Sargent. Whistler did not steadily occupy that place, which a depleted treasury sometimes caused him to forsake temporarily. According to the widely known story, when the bailiffs came in to dispossess him for debt he pressed them into service as extra men to help serve one of his famous breakfasts, after which he would retire to a low, rambling workshop up an alleyway off the Fulham road. There in solitary quiet he would bring forth another masterpiece to startle the world and furnish him with the means of re-entering beautiful Tite street and taking up the thread of his more princely existence.

CREMATION IN INDIA.

The Brahman's Funeral Pyre and the Ceremony of Burning.

After the body of a Brahman has been anointed with sesamum oil the big toes are bound together and the two thumbs. It is then lashed to a litter made of two long parallel poles, to which are fastened seven transverse pieces of wood. The shroud is very simple, a large piece of cloth wrapped round the body and bound with ropes of straw. If the dead Brahman leaves a will his face is not covered; otherwise the shroud is brought up over the head.

The burning ground, or ghat, is usually near a river that those who have taken part in the ceremonies may purify themselves as quickly and as easily as possible. Before erecting the funeral pyre a shallow pit is dug and partially filled with dry wood; the body is covered with splinters of dry wood and sprinkled with panchagaria, an inflammable liquid, and placed on the pyre and covered with branches and roots, like a hut.

The nearest relative or heir then takes a lighted taper and sets fire to the four corners of the pile and leaves at once to perform the ceremony of purification. The carriers, being of the lowest caste, remain until the body is entirely consumed.—Westminster Gazette.

WORK NEARING COMPLETION ON NEW AUTOMATIC

Work on the new Automatic system of the Ohio State Telephone Company in this city and county, is progressing very satisfactorily, and within a very few days the local management expects to announce definitely the date upon which the "cut-over" or change from the old order of things to the new, will be made.

For months a corps of experts have been engaged in the work of installing the equipment of the new automatic, and telephone men throughout the state and adjoining states are watching the result here, where the very latest in modern apparatus is being installed, so that patrons of the new automatic are expected to have service equal to the very best.

Meanwhile all patrons are looking forward to the change from the old to the new system. The management will issue an announcement a few days before the cut-over is made, so that all may know, and it is expected that the change will be made in one night's time.

MEMORIAL.

Orah Reeder, daughter of Enos and Zilpah Reeder, was born in Green township, Fayette county, Ohio, March 24, 1858; died November 1, 1915 at Ashville, N. C., aged 57 years, 7 months and 7 days.

She was married to Oscar Branen September 11th, 1884. To this union was born one son, Herbert, who grew to manhood and at the age of 22 years crossed the bar to join the father, who preceded him October 20th, 1900, thus severing the last earthly tie, that bound the little family together.

Her devotion to her loved ones was one of her marked characteristics, and was made doubly strong through the loss of her husband and son.

From that time on all her responsibilities were assumed in a grave conscientious manner and with a Christian spirit, for early in life she had accepted God as her Father, and united with the Friends church.

Later in life she removed her membership to Sugar Grove M. E. church with her husband, and remained a faithful worker for the Master until death.

Mrs. Branen had a quiet, modest, retiring nature, but behind it all was a strong personality. She was true, always to be trusted, for her to make a friend was for her to keep one, and there are many today who feel that a beautiful flower from friendship's garden has been transferred to realms where flowers never fade. The majority of Mrs. Branen's life has been spent in and around this city, except a few years spent in mission work in Mexico.

Her strength of character can be no better shown than in the courage she put forth in her last days on earth. Life was sweet to her as to all of us, and when she found that she only had a short time to live, she bravely and firmly faced the situation.

Going to Ashville, N. C., for special treatment in order that she might again take her place with her loved ones in the work she had so learned to love, "winning souls to Christ" Although her poor frail body went down before the mortal soul, yet her spirit came off conqueror, for the Lord was with her as she went down in the valley of death, but we have learned—

In hours of faith—
The truth to flesh, and sense unknown,
That life is ever Lord of Death.

And love can never lose its own.

With this trust we lay her to rest amid flowers, and surrounding evergreens, content to leave the earth, rather desiring, as she said, to depart and be with Christ. Death was but the opening of a door to heavenly mansions.

AUTO SHOW

The fifteenth annual automobile show at Cleveland will be held January 8 to 15. This will be the second of the big shows in the country, coming immediately after the New York show and preceding Chicago's by a full week.

The Dancing Mania.

The "dancing mania" of the middle ages came on the heels of the great plague known as the "black death." It was some sort of nervous disease and is now supposed to have been what is known as "St. Vitus' dance." It began in the year 1374 at Aix-la-Chapelle and spread all over Germany, the Netherlands and Italy. The dancers formed circles hand in hand and appearing to have lost all reason continued dancing, regardless of the bystanders, for hours together until in their wild delirium they fell to the ground in sheer exhaustion. Panting and foaming at the mouth, they would suddenly spring up and begin the dance again, to be again exhausted, and so on until they died. The mania involved millions of people.

Old Saws and Sayings.

A few old sayings on the subject of food come to us rather as a surprise in our age of omnivorous and refinement, yet they have their raison d'être notwithstanding. "Meat is much, manners are more;" "Cease your chatter and mind your platter;" "The ass that brays most eats least;" "The wing with the liver to him who's the giver;" "He can give little to his servant who licks his own trencher."

Apropos of this remark it is amusing to note that "manners" was the name given to the remnants of a meal. These came to the servants as official perquisites; hence our well worn expression before emptying a dish, "Leave the last slice (or whatever it may be) for manners."

Weather Effects.

The weather affects man in more ways, it appears, than many suspect. For example, it is believed that pressure variation due to fluctuating winds have peculiar pathological effects, that certain electrical conditions of the air induced by low atmospheric pressure have a pathological effect on nervous subjects and that solar radiation has peculiar effects which vary according to the season.

Important Notice

Northern Army Now In a Precarious Position.
HARD PRESSED BY ENEMY

Entente Powers in a Month's Time
Could Throw Half Million Men Into Serbia — Anglo-French Forces Attacking Bulgars at Southern End of
Front—Germans Make Gains in Champagne District.

London, Nov. 6.—The Germans, continuing their successes in the Champagne region of northern France, claim to have recaptured a trench northeast of Le Mesnil which the French had held for nearly a fortnight. Likewise they repulsed with heavy losses to the French an attack on positions recently taken by the Germans north of Massiges. Paris claims a repulse for the new German attacks in the Champagne and reports an air raid on buildings at Dormach used for the manufacture of suffocating gases.

In the Divinsk district the Russians remain on the offensive, but their attacks have been fruitless and have resulted in very heavy losses for them, Berlin claims. In Volhynia, General Von Linsingen has driven the Russians back northwest of Czartorysk. A German success at Sienikowice also is reported.

Geneva reports that snows in the Carnic Alps have brought the Austrians and Italians to a standstill in their operations in that section.

The Serbian northern army is being slowly ground down before the combined pressure of the Austro-German and Bulgarian forces. The fate of Nish hangs by a hair, and it is only at the southern end of the battle front that the Bulgars are meeting with any reverses. There, according to reports, the British are co-operating with the French, but, as heretofore, these reports are unofficial and fragmentary and it can not be said authoritatively whether the British are in touch with their new enemy.

If the Bulgar-Teuton tide is turned, the best opinion here is that it will be some weeks hence, involving a period of uncertainty, such as preceded the stand before Paris and on the Yser. But giving the entente powers a month's time, it is argued that they can throw 300,000 and perhaps 500,000 men into Serbia, not including Russians, and with such a force not only dispute the advance of the central powers, but contest Bulgaria's occupation of Serbian Macedonia.

The Turks continue sporadically active in the Dardanelles region, as is recorded in a British official communication from the Gallipoli peninsula. This says the Turks launched attacks against the British right in the Anzac region, but that they did not dent the British line.

The Montenegrins report the recapture of Troglav from the Austrians, whom they claim to be holding on the border.

ZAIMIS STEPS OUT OF POWER

London, Nov. 6.—Apparently determined that M. Zaimis shall remain in the office of prime minister of Greece, King Constantine urged him to retain the premiership. According to Athens dispatches, however, M. Zaimis declined to acquiesce in the king's desire, whereupon the king called a council of ministers, the deliberations of which may or may not determine whether Greece is to align herself against Bulgaria or persist in her attitude of "benevolent neutrality," which means that though the allied troops may cross her soil, her armies shall not aid them in driving the Bulgarians from Serbia.

M. Zaimis' refusal to retain the post, it is stated, was on the ground that although he had provisionally accepted the premiership to ease the situation, he was determined, as he had previously declared, to abstain from taking an active part in internal politics.

80 PERSONS ON BURNING SHIP

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 6. — With sixty-one passengers and a crew of twenty-one on board, the steamer Fort Bragg, bound for San Francisco from Guyanas, Mexico, is ashore and afire on the rocky Lower California coast at San Jose Del Cabo, according to a wireless message received at the Port Loma navy wireless station from Rear Admiral Winslow, aboard the flagship San Diego. Admiral Winslow's message stated that the Fort Bragg had wirelessed to the San Diego that the steamer had struck on the rocks about two miles north of Cape San Lucas.

The captain of the Fort Bragg urged that assistance come as soon as possible, and he said that fire was raging aboard and that to add to the danger a heavy sea was running and the ship was in imminent danger of going to pieces. Admiral Winslow's message stated that the San Diego was proceeding to the scene under full speed.

MOTHER OF 9 IN YEAR

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 6. — A birth record that will surpass any other in the world was established by Mrs. Gither Drewry of Spencer county, according to news received in Lexington. Mrs. Drewry, who is about thirty years old, is the mother of nine children, seven of whom are living. Eight months ago there were born to Mrs. Drewry five children, three boys and two girls. The girls died, but the boys are doing nicely. Yesterday there were born four boys; all of them doing well.

The latest piece of freak California legislation to be proposed is an anti ostrich ordinance of Los Angeles. The reason stated for the ordinance is that the birds violate the speed laws.

TAFT WOULD BE PREPARED

Boston, Nov. 6.—"Reasonable preparedness" was advocated here by Former President Taft. "I am a pacifist," he declared, "but I do not believe that we should remain entirely helpless because we assume that all the people of the earth will treat us with justice. I believe we should be prepared to such an extent that no nation will take advantage of us."

RUSSIAN SOAKED

Petrograd, Nov. 6.—Absence from the fortress of Kovno during the fighting there and inadequate preparation of the defense were charged against General Gregorieff, who was commandant of the fortress when it fell, in the courtmartial proceedings at Divinsk, which resulted in his receiving a sentence of fifteen years at hard labor and the loss of all his rights.

HAS KITCHENER QUIT CABINET?

London, Nov. 6.—Minister of War Kitchener is away. His absence is officially declared to be "temporary," with the supplementary statement that he was absent on "public duty." Premier Asquith is acting war minister.

Rumors began to fly thick and fast as soon as Lord Kitchener's absence became known. Hints that he has resigned, either voluntarily or under pressure, have predominated in the discussions concerning him. These hints were based chiefly upon the fact that for the first time since the war began it is deemed necessary for the premier or anyone else to assume the duties of war minister for him, as on the frequent former occasions when Lord Kitchener made trips to the continent the man next to him in rank did his work.

The guess is ventured by a few that in view of the German boast that the road to Constantinople also opens the road to Suez, Egypt and India, Kitchener may have been sent to either of these two latter countries to make preparations for all emergencies.

Amateur weather prophets are agreeing about the coming winter, whether it will be moderate or the real thing, quite as well as the official war reporters, but no better. Some say that the woods, the late flowers and weeds indicate an open winter. Both parties are noting the antics of the squirrels, the condition of chestnut burs—where they can find any—and of the walnut hulls and the flight of migratory birds. Probably there will be a chorus of "I told you so," good and bad. A few, very few, record blizzard days and a few, on a stretch, of melting sunshine stamp themselves on the memory. After it's all over the best evidence lies in the good days for cutting ice, for sledding across lots and the state of the wood pile and coal bin. Whether "half the wood and half the hay" stand plus or minus on Candlemas day (Feb. 2) is a pretty good test of how Jack Frost has acted during winter's strenuous weeks.

Very many school children never know until it is too late what a glorious privilege it is to go to school. Some of them could perhaps be helped in getting this knowledge earlier and in time to do some good. We have been inclined in this country to make a fetish of routine education and jam all kinds of material through one mold. Most systems of education put the "idea" before the "thing," and all young minds cannot grasp the unseen. For the kindergarten stage this evil has been abated, and the child learns through the eyes. Industrial schools do the same thing in a way, for the learner soon discovers that oral or book rules must be mastered to insure success. Some one in a position to know the value of school privileges has the responsibility of helping the untutored boy and girl to realize the truth. Somewhere in some school or in some classroom of the average school there is a light burning for the dullest child mind, and it is the duty of some experienced guide to lead errant or stumbling footsteps in that direction.

We all know what happens "when Greek meets Greek," but the classic isle has often gone to the wall when her warriors went against other nations.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take
Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.
The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

VILLA LIED THAT'S ALL

Four Americans Reported Killed Held By Villa.

WERE NOT HIT BY SHELL

Two Physicians and Their Chauffeurs, Reported by Villa to Have Lost Their Lives While Treating Wounded Soldiers, Are Alive and Well. Were Seen by Americans Who Have Just Arrived at Border.

Naco, Ariz., Nov. 6.—Reported dead by General Villa, it has just been disclosed that Drs. James Miller and R. H. Tighen and the two American chauffeurs, A. L. Wilson and A. D. Polant, are alive and well in Cananea, where they are prisoners of Villa. This, it is said, is admitted by Villa himself.

Americans reaching the border denied the story told by Villa to the effect that the Americans had been killed by a Carranza shrapnel shell while taking supplies to aid the Villa wounded on the battlefield. Dr. Fred K. H. Wickman, who said he had been held a prisoner of the Villistas while coming to the border, asserted that he saw the American prisoners at Villa Verde, south of Agua Prieta, following the battle, and all are alive and well. George Shaw, an American truck driver, who took supplies to the Villa troops at Villa Verde, also returned with the information that he saw the Americans alive.

Officials of the Cananea Consolidated Copper company then took the matter up with Villa and asked him to release the men so the doctors could return to their duties at the Cananea hospital, informing the general that his patients could not be cared for without the doctors.

Villa assured the mining officials the four men were alive and were already at Cananea, and said that he made a mistake in reporting them dead; that he had learned since that the four men killed were American teamsters who accompanied him from the state of Chihuahua.

WANTED—Lady roomer. Mrs. Mary Bush, 102 Columbus ave. 257t6

WANTED—Permanent homes in the country for girls and boys under 16 years of age. Apply at Probate Judge's Office. 145t6

LOST AND FOUND.
FOUND—One night lock key, Friday morning. Owner call at this office and get same by paying for this ad. 261t2

Just what Villa had in mind in reporting the death of the two doctors and chauffeurs is not known. Some advance the suggestion that he wished to hold the doctors for service in his army.

Villa left Naco for Cananea, where a large number of his men have been sent. Meantime official announcement from Carranza sources is to the effect that Carranza is rushing all the troops he can muster to Sonora, in an effort to overwhelm Villa and his forces.

Alliance, O., Nov. 6.—Orville Bettis, thirty-eight, of Augusta, died from injuries received two days ago when he was trampled by a team of horses.

Perishes When Home Burns.
Oxford, O., Nov. 6.—John Kapp, a wealthy farmer, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his home, near here. Kapp, who was seventy-eight years old, was alone in the house at the time.

Died From Shock.
Portsmouth, O., Nov. 6.—Mrs. Robert Mustard, thirty-five, wife of a prominent Otway farmer, died from shock induced by the sight of flames consuming her husband's barn and threatening their home. The barn and all its contents, including much live stock, were destroyed.

Claims Shooting Accidental.
Chardon, O., Nov. 6.—George Newberry shot his wife and then drove madly with her to a Cleveland hospital. Newberry said the shooting was accidental. He was arrested on a lunacy charge sworn out by his father-in-law.

Automobiles in Collision.
McConnelsville, O., Nov. 6.—Three persons were hurt, two fatally, when automobiles driven by John Whitney, county recorder, and Fred Dover, merchant, collided at a street intersection here. Dover and Mrs. Lee Fang, who was riding in his machine, were injured internally, and Mrs. Whitney, who was riding with her husband, sustained severe hurts.

Fall Proved Fatal.
Cleveland, Nov. 6.—Sanford Merritt, twenty-two, of Mantua, O., employed on construction on a six-story building, fell through an elevator shaft to the basement. He was rushed to a hospital, where he was pronounced dead. He was removed to a morgue where he was found to be alive. He was then hurried back to the hospital, where he was again pronounced dead. For the second time he was taken to the morgue and life found extinct.

FIRST NAVAL ORDERS SENT BY WIRELESS

Washington, Nov. 6.—Secretary Daniels transmitted the first naval order ever sent by wireless telephone to Rear Admiral Usher at the New York navy yard. From his desk in the navy department the secretary talked to the commandant of the New York yard by way of the big radio towers at Arlington and ordered a report on repairs to the dreadnaught New York. Navy officials say the achievement brings closer the day when a secretary of the navy may sit at his desk in Washington and talk to the fleet commanders all over the world.

BROOKS RESIGNS
Cleveland, Nov. 6.—John Granam Brooks of Cambridge, Mass., for sixteen years its president, resigned at the opening of the sixteenth annual convention of the National Consumers' league here. He gave ill health as the reason. His resignation was accepted. Brooks is an attorney and a famous writer on economics.

ELECTION MIXUP
Fremont, O., Nov. 6.—A peculiar development in Tuesday's election came to light when it became known that voters in Rice township elected Moses Gross and Joseph Young both to be justices of the peace and constables. The secretary of state will be asked for a ruling as to whether the men may legally hold both offices.

19 BOMBS FOUND
Cleveland, Nov. 6.—Nineteen dynamite bombs with a partially burned attached fuse were found 150 feet from the main plant of the Theodore Kundtz company, cabinet makers, where 1,800 men are on strike for higher pay.

WINS BY TWO
Dayton, Nov. 6.—With two votes to the good, John R. Flotron, endorsed by the citizens' committee, was declared the winner over Willard Barringer, Socialist candidate, in the race for city commissioner, by the official count.

One hundred and thirty-four years after the British lion quit trying to boss this country and hauled down the union jack at Yorktown representatives of England were over here suing for a loan to maintain national integrity. Well, we didn't throw it up to the Britons that times have changed. They can see that for themselves.

FREIGHT WRECK ON D. T. & I.

The worst freight wreck in many months occurred on the D. T. & I. at a point 100 yards south of Elm street crossing, about nine o'clock Saturday morning, when four cars and caboose of south bound through freight No. 55 were wrecked and the track torn up for a distance of more than 200 feet.

Three of the four cars were loaded and two of the cars were badly broken and twisted. It was necessary to call the wreck train from Springfield.

Passenger train No. 5, due here at 9:50 a. m. was tied up until about two o'clock, when the wreck was cleared away and traffic resumed.

CHARLES WARNER MAY LAND OFFICE

Columbus, O., November 6.—That Governor Willis is seriously considering the appointment of Charles T. Warner as a member of the state utilities commission to succeed Oliver H. Hughes of Hillsboro, Democrat, was indicated at the State House Friday.

Warner was a close second in the race for mayor of Columbus Tuesday. He was formerly a member of the local civil service commission. He is a lawyer.

The governor is said to be casting about for a Democrat for the utilities commission who is not too closely aligned with the Democratic organization. Warner is a Democrat and he fought the organization in the municipal campaign.

Mr. Warner is a former Fayette county man and his appointment to such a high post of duty would be a recognition of fitness as would be pleasing indeed to our local folks.

SPANGLER AND FREER IN CITY

Mr. N. G. Spangler, former Division Freight Agent of the B. & O. S. W. railroad with headquarters at Cincinnati, and his successor, Mr. P. D. Freer, of Chillicothe, were in the city Friday morning, and while here met many local citizens.

Mr. Spangler is now engaged in the insurance business in Columbus, and for many years had been connected with the B. & O.

Mr. Freer is a man of wide experience in his line, and a man of pleasing personality.

A TRIBUTE.

In sad but loving memory of my dear wife, Mattie Higgins, who died November 6th, 1912;

Three long sad years ago today, God took my dear wife away;

Only God knows how I miss her. God called her home, it was his will—

But in my heart she lingers still. Her memory is as dear today, As in the hour she passed away.

From loving husband,

GEORGE HIGGINS.

A new sanitary code requires the medical inspection of all persons employed in places "where food and drink are prepared, cooked, mixed, baked, exposed, bottled, packed, handled, stored, manufactured, offered for sale or sold." This covers New York city restaurants and hotels, bakeries and shops and stores where food ready for consumption might be infected if handled by diseased persons. The reform will have to be extended to dwellings in order not to discriminate, and, while it will bring hardship to very many people, the common sense of the mass will probably rally to its support and make it effective as a health promoter.

SECT. DANIELS SUFFERS LOSS

Raleigh, N. C., November 6.—The entire plant and buildings of the News and Observer owned by the Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels, was destroyed by fire which started shortly after 6 o'clock this morning.

A large printing establishment is also a complete loss. Several small stores are either partially or completely destroyed.

The business manager of the paper was painfully injured. First estimates of the property loss are about $150,000.

It was the second time the plant had been burned since Mr. Daniels has been secretary of the navy, the first fire having occurred April 24, 1913.

STANLEY MAY LOSE OFFICE

By Associated Press.

Louisville, Ky., November 6.—A. O. Stanley, Democrat, was leading his Republican opponent, Edwin P. Morrow, by the small margin of 671 votes today, in the contest for governor of Kentucky.

Official returns from the remaining four counties gave him this majority.

The chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee still holds to his claim of victory for Mr. Morrow.

MISSING MEN REACH BORDER

By Associated Press.

Naco, Arizona, November 6.—H. R. Thigpen and James Miller, American doctors, and two chauffeurs, A. L. Wilson and J. D. Blyant, who were reported by General Villa to have been shot, arrived here today from Villa Verde, 22 miles south of Sonora.

POSTOFFICE POINT.

There is No Mail Station Located on This Arctic Ice Pack.

Almost due north of Bering strait is a point in the solid north pack that always extends much farther south than the pack at the eastward or at the westward. This point is naturally variable, according to the heat of the summer and the severity of the previous winter, but it does not move more than a few degrees. For fifty or seventy-five years this point of ice has been spoken of by the arctic whalers as "Postoffice point."

This does not mean that there is a postoffice there, but the significance of the name is because the whaling fleets usually are divided, some ships going considerably east of Postoffice point and others west of it. Ships that have been east of it cruise along the edge of the pack and very frequently meet ships that have been to the west of it, and the meeting point for some reason has always been in the neighborhood of Postoffice point. It was here therefore that the ships used to meet, after being separated for many weeks, and exchange news and gossip.

The solid north pack comes pretty close to Point Barrow and extends in an irregular line from Point Barrow to Postoffice point. Much of this ice "looks as though it has been there from the year 1," as one of the whaling captains has expressed it. Bearing in mind the fact that Postoffice point is always to be found in approximately the same latitude and longitude, it seems as though there must of necessity be land back of it, although of course there is a possibility that there may be a very solid pack of ice instead of land, held in place by comparatively shallow water.

The Story of a Long Name.

A northern man who was visiting in Baltimore stopped on the street one day to have his shoes polished. A bright eyed little black boy stepped forward to give the desired shine. Becoming interested in the little chap, the northerner asked his name, to which the boy promptly replied: "Gen. sah."

After a few moments of silence the northerner continued, "I suppose that is an abbreviation for General."

The word "abbreviation" gave the little fellow pause. However, he was equal to the occasion and recovered himself. "No, sah," he said; "tain't 'xactly dat. Ma shore 'nough name an' gnessis xxx, 33. So Shall My Righteous Answer for Me in Time to Come Washington Carter, but dey jest calls me Gen for short."—Youth's Companion.

A Paradoxical River.

On the African shore, near the gulf of Aden and connecting the lake of Assal with the main ocean, may be found one of the most wonderful rivers in the world. This curiosity does not flow to but from the ocean toward inland. The surface of Lake Assal itself is nearly 700 feet below the mean tide, and it is fed by this paradoxical river, which is about twenty miles in length. It is highly probable that the whole basin which the lagoon partly fills was once an arm of the sea, which became separated therefrom by the duning of loose sand. The inflowing river has a limited volume, being fullest, of course, at high tide, and has filled the basin to such an extent that evaporation and supply exactly balance each other.

Three True Steels.

Iron and carbon steel, vanadium steel and tungsten steel are pointed out by Professor J. O. Arnold, British metallurgist, as the three true steels. The second kind is iron and carbon steel with 5 per cent of vanadium, the iron carbide having ceased to exist, and vanadium carbide being present, and the third kind is iron and carbon steel having 11.5 per cent of tungsten, the iron carbide having been expelled by the tungsten. Iron and carbon steel hardens at 730 degrees C., vanadium steel just below 1,450 degrees, its melting point, and tungsten steel at 850 degrees to 1,200 degrees.—San Francisco Chronicle.

RUMOR PERSISTS THAT KITCHENER IS TO BE RETIRED AS ARMY HEAD

London, November 6.—The Post says that Earl Kitchener, secretary for War, has been entrusted with an important mission to the near East and has already departed from London.

"It is generally believed," says the Post, "That Earl Kitchener's business will necessitate a stay so prolonged that it will be necessary to fill his place at the war office before long."

"It is true that he has not resigned, but the importance of his present errand makes it certain that his resignation is only delayed."

"Reiteration of the report that Kitchener had placed his resignation in the hands of the king has brought forth an authorized categorical statement to the contrary."

SERBIAN CAPITAL HAS SURRENDERED

Nish and More Than Half of Serbia Now in Hands of Invaders Who Are Drawing Net About the Serbs.

CLOSER UNION OF ALLIES IS SOUGHT BY LORD KITCHENER

Bulgars and Austro-German Forces Continue Rapid Advance as Serbs Fall Back Toward Montenegro—Resignation of Greek Cabinet is Accepted—Roumania Stepping Into the Game—Russ Defeated on Stripa River—German Subs Creep Past Gibraltar.

By Associated Press.
Berlin, wireless to Sayville, L. I., November 6.—The capture of Nish, Serbia, by the Bulgarians was announced officially here today.

The town of Kralievo, 35 miles southwest of Kraguyevatz, also has been captured by the Germans, who are pursuing the Serbs to the east of that point.

The Germans have reached the Zupanyevac district and in the Morava valley have pursued the Serbs beyond Obrevicirica.

The Bulgarian conquest of Nish was effected after three days' of hard fighting.

In these engagements the Bulgarians captured 350 Serbs and two cannons.

Near Lukovo the Bulgarians defeated the Serbs and in the vicinity of Sokobanya also they won a victory, taking more than 500 prisoners and six cannons.

Bulgarian and German forces got in touch with each other near Krivir.

With the exception of Belgrade, Nish is the largest city in Serbia. It is situated on the main railroad line running from Belgrade to Saloniki.

More than half of Serbia is now in possession of the invaders, who also have taken the greater part of the country's railroad system.

The junction of Austro-Germans and Bulgarians, reported today, completes the semi-circular wall of hostile armies about the retreating Serbs.

The line now runs from the western border near Vishegrad, eastward along the railroad to Varvarin; thence south to Uskup.

The Bulgarians, however, have advanced and are said to be threatening Pristina.

It is said in Berlin that the Serbs have an open line of less than 70 miles for retreat to Montenegro.

London, November 6.—It was officially announced this evening that Field Marshal Earl Kitchener had gone to the eastern theater of war.

The official statement read:

"Earl Kitchener, at the request of his colleagues, has left England for a short visit to the eastern theater of war."

It is generally assumed that Earl Kitchener has gone with the immediate object of rearranging the military personnel at the front and effecting, in conjunction with the allied nations, some central organization to control the scheme of military operations.

To unravel the tangles in the east in consultation with Great Britain's war partners, will be likely to occupy his entire attention for some time.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

By Associated Press.
Paris, November 6.—The newspapers announce that King Constantine has definitely accepted the resignation of the Zaimis cabinet, says a Havas dispatch from Athens.

ROUMANIA TO DISARM RUSSIAN SUPPLY BOATS

By Associated Press.
London, November 6.—Roumanian authorities have taken the necessary steps to bring into Roumanian harbors and disarm vessels flying the Russian flag which are loaded with arms and ammunition for Serbia, says a semi-official statement issued at Bucharest and received here by wireless from Berlin.

RUSS ARE DEFEATED

By Associated Press.
Berlin, November 6.—The Austro-German forces in Galicia are said by the War Office today to have won a further victory over the Russians in the fighting along the Stripa river.

er. The Russians were thrown back to their old positions on the east bank of the river.

In the recent fighting there 50 officers and 5,000 Russians have been captured.

USE GIBRALTAR STRAITS

By Associated Press.
Paris, November 6.—The straits of Gibraltar have again been passed by German submarines which on Thursday sank two French and one Italian steamship. The crew of one vessel is missing.

TAKE 3000 SERBS

By Associated Press.
Berlin, wireless, November 6.—Capture of Varvarin, on the Morava river in Serbia about 40 miles northwest of Nish, was announced by the German War Office today.

More than 3,000 Serbs were taken prisoners.

KITCHENER SAILS

By Associated Press.
London, November 6.—The Post says that Earl Kitchener, secretary for war, has been entrusted with an important mission to the near East and has already departed from London.

LONDON GLOBE DEADLY BOMB IS THROTTLED AT CONSULATE

By Associated Press.
London, November 6.—The printing plant of the London Globe, together with copies of the issues of yesterday and today, were seized by the police this afternoon.

Reiteration today that Secretary Kitchener had resigned, notwithstanding official denials, seemed to have decided the authorities on the suppression of the paper.

The war policy of the British government, in respect to both the Dardanelles expedition and the Serbian campaign, has been subjected to severe criticism in England, and if the statement of the Post is correct the war secretary presumably has been sent to the near East to determine, by personal inspection, the proper policy for Great Britain.

FIEND HURLS DEADLY BOMB AT CONSULATE

By Associated Press.
New York, November 6.—The third attempt within a year to wreck the offices of the Italian consul general with a bomb was made today.

The missile, said to have been hurled from a nearby roof, struck the pavement near the building, exploded with a roar that was heard for blocks, ripped apart the cobblestones, rocked the neighborhood and filled the street with a rain of broken glass, but caused slight damage otherwise and failed to injure anyone.

The consul general and his staff were in their offices at the time, with 150 Italian reservists.

An Italian boy, found on the roof of a house, was taken to police headquarters.

After an investigation, police said they thought the bomb had been dropped in the street by a man who became frightened when he saw a patrolman standing near by.

FACTORY BURNS TWENTY PERISH

Wooden Factory in Brooklyn Destroyed By Flames Which Take Lives of 20 Men and Women and Cause Serious Injury to 50 Others.

By Associated Press.
New York, November 6.—Twenty men and girls were killed and more than 50 others injured, according to the police, in a fire that swept through a four-story wooden factory building in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn today.

Within a short time after the fire was discovered eight girls had been burned to death on the fire escape, while a number of others, police said, had met a similar fate before they could reach the escapes.

The fire started close to the stairs on the first floor and spread so speedily that escape by the stairs from the upper floors was entirely cut off.

The upper floors were occupied by a shirt concern and a cloak manufacturing company.

Between 350 and 400 operatives, mostly young girls, were at work there, it was stated, when the fire broke out.

It was among these employees that most of the casualties occurred.

CARRANZA CONCENTRATES FORCES FOR BLOW TO OUST GEN. VILLA

By Associated Press.
Washington, November 6.—Carranza forces, to the north and south of Villa's retreating army, are concentrating for a blow which the defector leaders hope will end the strife in northern Mexico.

Major General Funston reported today that General Obregon, Carranza's chief commander, would arrive at Douglas, Arizona, to begin organizing a campaign.

Funston has been informed that Villa demanded and received $25,000 in gold from the Cananea Copper Company and has called on the Montezuma Copper Company and the El Tigre Company for $25,000 each.

The last two companies, American concerns, refused to comply, and Villa stated that unless they did he would destroy their property.

The Montezuma company has a plant valued at a million dollars.

Villa told the Cananea Cattle Co. he proposed to take its entire herd of 20,000 cattle for use of his army.

MILLIONAIRE DIES TODAY

By Associated Press.
Philadelphia, November 6.—P. A. B. Widner, 81, widely known financier, died at his home at Elkins' park near here today. He had been ill for some time.

He was a dominant factor in the street railway systems of this city, New York, Chicago and other cities.

Mr. Widner started his business career as a butcher. He accumulated a fortune estimated at more than $60,000,000 in the street railway business.

DEFENSE POLICY MENACES PEACE

Words of Bryan, Who Attacks
Wilson's Position.

AT ISSUE WITH PRESIDENT

Nebraskan Issues Statement Sharply
Assailing Preparedness Plan Outlined by Wilson in New York
Speech—Program Held a Departure
From American Traditions and Reversal of Nation's Policy.

Washington, Nov. 6.—In a statement attacking the position taken by President Wilson in his speech before the Manhattan club in New York city,
Former Secretary of State Bryan formally opened the battle against
"preparedness."

Mr. Bryan said the president's program of army and navy increases violated the principles of Christianity.
Furthermore, he criticised his former chief for enunciating these doctrines at a club composed of men who he termed "mammon-worshippers." Mr.
Bryan said in part:

"The plan which the president proposes is not only a departure from our traditions, but a reversal of our national policy. It is not only a menace to our peace and safety, but a challenge to the spirit of Christianity which teaches us to influence others
by example rather than by exciting fear."

"The president will not assume that he is more deeply interested in the welfare of his country than the millions who elected him to be, for the time being, their spokesman. And if,
as he evidently believes, he is giving voice to the opinions of his countrymen, he is, of course, anxious to have them as frank with him as he has been with them—how otherwise can he know whether he represents or misrepresents their views? He has announced a policy which has never before been adopted in this country and never endorsed by any party in the country, and he has no way of knowing, until he hears from the people, whether he has correctly interpreted the will of the public.

"The spirit that makes an individual carry a revolver—and who ever carries a revolver except for defense?—leads him not only to use it on slight provocation, but to use language which provokes trouble. 'Speak softly but carry a big stick' is one of the delusive maxims employed by those who put their faith in force.

Pistol Toting.

"There are two answers to it—first,
the man who speaks softly has not the disposition to carry a club, and if a man with a soft voice is persuaded to carry a club his voice changes soon as he begins to rely upon the club.

"If there is any truth in our religion, a nation must win as an individual does, not by carrying arms,
but by an upright, honorable course that invites confidence and insures good will. This nation has won its position in the world without resorting to the habit of toting a pistol or carrying a club. Why reverse, our policy at this time? The president himself admits that there is no reason for a change.

"There has not been a time in fifty years when there was less reason to add to the expenses of the army and navy, for we are not only without an enemy, but our preparedness is increasing rapidly as other nations exhaust themselves. There never has been a time in our history when our duty to the world more imperatively demanded self-restraint and the counsels of peace.

"Why abandon the hope that we have so long entertained of settling the nations of Europe in their fatal folly by imitating them? Why impose upon the Western Hemisphere a policy so disastrous? May we not expect all Latin America to be stimulated to preparation if we enter upon a new era of preparation? And will not such a policy make conflicts between these republics more probable?"

"We shall do infinite harm to the neighboring nations as well as to ourselves if we are drawn into this policy which provokes war by a preparation which is impossible without a large increase in taxation and the arousing of a military system which sets up false standards of honor."

NATIONAL DEFENSE PROGRAM OUTLINED

Secretary of War Garrison Issues Statement.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Details of the proposed new military policy were formally announced by Secretary of War Garrison here. The secretary issued a statement disclosing that the new policy was drafted with a view to making a plan consistent with existing institutions and public sentiment in the United States rather than one which should be perfect from a purely military point of view.

Mr. Garrison points out that there is no possibility at present of securing the administration of this country of a military system based on universal military service, upon conscription or upon national control of the public school system. It is understood that this statement reflects the nature of the disagreement between the secretary and the general staff of the army, whose plan for a military policy was rejected by the secretary in favor of a much more moderate scheme.

For the first year Mr. Garrison estimates the operation of his plan will cost a total of $136,000,000, including $111,000,000 for the regular army, $15,000,000 for the citizen army and $10,000,000, double the current appropriation, for the militia. When the system is in complete operation he estimates that it will cost $182,000,- 000, as follows: For the regular army,
$127,000,000; for the naval guard,
$10,000,000; for the citizen army, $45,-
000,000. In addition, Mr. Garrison proposes to spend a total of $104,000,000
in the next four years on the accumulation of reserve material of all sorts and $80,000,000 during the same period for improvement of the coast defenses. According to his estimate the total army budget for the first year will be $182,000,000, increasing each year to the fourth year, when it would be $228,000,000, and decreasing thereafter to $182,000,000 a year. The present budget of the army is about $105,000,000.

SUFFRAGE PARTY AT WHITE HOUSE

Washington, Nov. 6.—President
Wilson is to give a woman suffrage afternoon party Dec. 6 and the guests of honor will be two leaders in the Congressional union, Miss Francis Jolliffe and Mrs. Sara Bardfield, western women, who will take to Washington the signatures of 500,000 woman voters who want their sisters to be enfranchised by federal amendment. Mr. Wilson's secretary has requested Miss Alice Paul, head of the Congressional union, to furnish him with the names of 300 prominent suf-fragists whom he could invite to meet
Miss Jolliffe and Mrs. Bardfield.

FIRST EXAM. IS ANNULLED

Columbus, Nov. 6.—Governor Willis and the state civil service commission annulled the examination held Sept. 29 for superintendent of the Women's reformatory at Marysville.
No date has been fixed for another examination. The twenty-one women who qualified in the examination will be required to take another, open to any and all applicants, if they desire to stay in the race. They will not, however, be required to pay the examination fee again.

The Federation of Women's Clubs, which is backing the candidacy of Mrs. Sara C. Douglas of Lima for the superintendency, protested the regularity of the first examination on the ground that the civil service commission had accepted the application of Mrs. Cornelia B. Kennedy of Findlay on the day of the examination; also on the ground that fees of a number of applicants were not in the commission's hands before the examination.

A FARM FOR EVERY DESERVING MEXICAN

First Chief Carranza on His Agrarian Policy.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Nov. 6.—In his first protracted interview, First Chief Carranza explained in detail his main plans for the administration of Mexican affairs. Carranza was seen in his temporary capital at Pldras Negras.
Throughout the discussion one point stood out, the position taken against special privilege, whether Mexican,
American or European; Carranza left no room for doubt on this point.

Some of his policies are noteworthy, particularly his agrarian policy. From the vast lands which the government now holds and is about to acquire Carranza intends to provide the deserving Mexican with sufficient ground for a farm which will make him independent if he works.
It will not be given away, but will be sold.

In his whole discussion the general
scrupulously avoided the word "confiscation." The operation by which the Villistas and Huertistas have lost millions of acres of land, notably the Madero holdings, is termed an embargo. "There were debts on these properties," said Carranza, quickly.
"When a man owes civil debts in the form of taxes, for example, all his available properties are sequestered
until the debts have been liquidated."

And this is his answer to the large land owners who for years have been dodging taxes, refusing to develop their property, and thus have been assisting the enemies of the Constitutional head.

Season of Pleasure and Profit

The beautiful autumn weather continues although the calendar figures tell us that we are nearly one-fourth of the way through "chill November," the month which usually makes good on the description of the poets as the season of "surlly blasts" and cold rains.

Rarely, if ever, has there been in this section such a prolonged season of fine weather. It is just what we have dreamed of and what our fancy has pictured all during the peculiarly unpleasant summer season.

If preceding the coming of October we could have been assured of a week of dry, bright, sunny weather folks hereabouts would have been glad to compromise and been content with that much of a payment for the disappointments of spring and summer. Yet here we are already in the fifth week and, human like, we are accepting it all as a matter of course with but little more than passing comment in praise and gratitude.

Not only is this weather a joy to those who only get out occasionally—it is a matter of dollars to the farmers. The work of cutting the corn and seeding has gone forward with unprecedented activity and the amount of work done has footed up an enormous total. Plowing for next season's corn crop is now being done which indicates that the farmer folks are not only up with their work but for the first time this season are well ahead and accumulating a good credit balance of work done upon which to draw when next spring's work payments begin to fall due.

The Lyceum Course

Among other causes which the people of this city have for congratulating themselves is that Washington is again to have a course of lectures and entertainments at Grace church, extending through the winter months.

For a time, during the spring and summer months, there existed serious doubt as to whether the committee would again undertake the task of providing the people of the city with the usual series of high class entertainments, following a custom of eighteen years' standing.

Indeed at one time the lecture course committee determined not to follow the usual custom. As soon as the determination of the committee became known by the public, the demand made upon the individual members of the committee was so insistent and emphatic that a new organization was formed, known as the Washington Lyceum Course and arrangements were concluded which insure a high class of entertainments at Grace church this winter.

Washington folks are not unmindful of the entertainment and the benefits to be derived from these entertainments. The city is in a peculiar condition regarding entertainments any way. There is little else here save the moving picture shows in the way of instructive entertainment and our people would object strenuously to being compelled to go through the long winter season without the lecture course. They did object and made their objections known and the present course is the result.

People from all over the county, in these days of machines, patronize the Lyceum entertainments and their objections too swelled the chorus when there was a prospect that the course would be abandoned.

But all danger is passed. We are to have a Lyceum course and a good one, and because we are, every citizen has reason to shake hands with himself.

The Lack of Revenue

Shortage of money has been the excuse universally offered for failure to properly conduct public affairs in any and every line when failures have occurred (and they have been numerous) in Ohio during the last four years.

It was supposed, at the time the one per cent tax rate limit law was enacted, that a reappraisal of real property, bringing that class of property on to the tax duplicate at its real value in money, would result in the return of practically all of the moneys, credits and other intangible property for taxation and that the tax duplicate, so greatly increased, would furnish the basis to produce sufficient revenue at a reduced rate.

Unfortunately, however, the moneys and credits did not come out of hiding and the amount of revenue obtainable under the rate limit law has in fact proven to be insufficient to meet demands. The same shortage in receipts exists in many rural sections also.

The people are generous, however, and are not averse to issuing bonds, providing for extra taxlevies or any thing else within the limits of the law, which will aid in securing needed funds.

In this county the people Tuesday voted an extra tax levy of two mills for good road purposes. The officials told us what they could and would do if given the "wherewithal" to do it. The people have granted their request and its up to the officials now to make good on their promises.

Fayette county roads need attention, need it badly. Now as soon as the money begins to come in we are justified in expecting some practical results in road improvements—some relief from present conditions.

Poetry For Today

HAVE I DONE WELL?

And they were stronger hands than mine
That digged the Ruby from the earth,
More cunning brains that made it worth
The large desire of a king;
And bolder hearts that through the brine
Went down the perfect pearl to bring.

Lo, I have wrought in common clay
Rude figures of a rough-hewn race;
For pearls strew not the market place
In this town of my banishment,
Where, with the shifting dust I play
And eat the bread of discontent.

Yet is there life in that I make—
Oh, Thou who knowest, turn and see
As Thou hast power over me,
So have I power over these.
Because I wrought them for Thy sake,
And breathed in them mine agonies.

Small mirth was in the making. Now
I lift the cloth that cloaks the clay
And, wearied, at Thy feet I lay
My wares ere I go forth to sell.
The long bazar will praise — but
Thou—
Heart of my Heart, have I done well?

—Rudyard Kipling.

It is better to study the problem of army and navy increase calmly in days of peace than hysterically under pressure of booming guns and swooping airships, as England is compelled to do. In general the new plan outlines an adequate first line of defense composed mainly of "trained citizenry." On the face of it it is safe to say that if the law gets upon the statute books and an appropriation is voted it will be up to the citizens to come forward and train under the best of auspices and to make good when the long roll is sounded.

You may not believe it, but the most important looking man in an establishment doesn't always draw the biggest salary.

Mother love is great stuff, but after a boy gets into the forties and wears out his whiskers his mother should quit calling him Willie.

DADDY LONGLEGS

He Is Harmless, He Doesn't Bite, and He Isn't a Spider.

Don't call a daddy longlegs a spider, because he isn't. Spiders bite and have poison glands. This insect is perfectly harmless. It isn't just pleasant to have one of them crawl up your arm or down your neck, but you're just as safe as when he isn't there—ten times safer than the insect is just at that moment. He's not only harmless, but so common that you'll find him almost anywhere in the world where it's warm enough for him to exist.

In good old American language we call him daddy longlegs. Maybe you've heard him called harvest man or grand father graybeard. He has eight long legs bowed in the middle, so that when he's standing up his little round body almost touches the ground where he walks. He also has two eyes and two pincers, which you will see if you examine him closely.

From midsummer to late autumn daddy longlegs scampers about over rocks, tree trunks, gets in the picnic marmalade in the park, crawls up the fisherman's neck along the stream, collects in barns and has a general good time. Few of them survive the winter.

In Mammoth cave, Kentucky, the daddy longlegs are blind.—Philadelphia North American.

LEMBERG RICH IN NAMES.

It Has Had Twenty-seven Different Ones in Its Career.

Many cities are known by more than one name, but it is given to few to rejoice in more than half a dozen distinctive cognomens. But the historic Gallician city of Lemberg has been known at one time or another by no less than twenty-seven different appellations.

According to the Polish Bulletin, the ancient Ruthenian names for Lwow were Lwow, Lwiv, Lwihrad, Lwihrod, Lwiv, the Germans called it Lemberg, Lemberg, Lemberg, Loewenburg; the Latin and pseudo Latin names include Lebburga, Lamburga, Leontopolis, Leone, Liviv, Leopola; in the thirteenth century it was known to the Greeks as Lithon and Lifbada.

The patriarchs of Constantinople, Alexandria and Jerusalem referred to it as Leovios and Leonopolis; the Turks call it in their books Ill, Ilbo, Ilbot, Ilbow, Ilbadir; the Armenians gave to it the name of Ilot; the Russians have lately baptized it Lwow.

The real name of the city, it is asserted, is the Polish one of Lwow, which literally translated means Lion City.

Why Boiled Water Freezes Easily.
Water which is hot, of course, cannot freeze until it has parted with its heat, but water that has been boiled will, other things being equal, freeze sooner than water which has not been boiled. A slight disturbance of water disposes it to freeze more rapidly, and this is the cause which accelerates the freezing of boiled water. The water that has been boiled has lost the air naturally contained in it, which on exposure to the atmosphere it begins again to attract and absorb. During this process of absorption a motion is necessarily produced among its particles, slight certainly and imperceptible, yet probably sufficient to accelerate its congelation. In unboiled water this disturbance does not exist. Indeed, water when kept perfectly still can be reduced several degrees below the freezing point without its becoming ice.

Knew What He Was Doing.
At the time of the great disaster in Martinique the Italian bark Orsolina was taking on a cargo of sugar there. Her captain was accustomed to volcanoes, and he did not like the appearance of Mont Pelee. Not half his cargo was on board, but he decided to sail for home.

"The volcano is all right," argued the shippers. "Finish your loading."
"I don't know anything about Mont Pelee," said the captain. "but if Vesuvius looked that way I'd get out of Naples, and I'm going to get right out of here."

The shippers threatened him with arrest. They sent customs officers to detain him, but the captain persisted in leaving. Twenty-four hours later the shippers and the customs officers lay dead in the ruins of St. Pierre.

Matrimony.

The primary impulse of all creatures is possession. It is this that causes a chicken to tear around the yard with a piece of meat in its mouth and all the other chickens after it. It hasn't time, but the instinct of possession makes him grab and keep it. The same is noticeable among beasts. They like to get a great piece of meat in their mouths and then growl. It is this instinct in man which provokes him to matrimony. He wants something to guard and growl over, so he seeks a hollow tree, a cave or a house and a wife.—Pittsburgh Press.

TRUE FOSSIL FORESTS

Yellowstone Park's Array of Stony Relics of Volcano Activity.

Remarkable fossil forests exist in Yellowstone park, the most remarkable, it is believed, of the several fossil forests which have been discovered—there are others in Egypt, in California and in Arizona—because in the Yellowstone most of the trees were cut down in their original upright position and not found recumbent and scattered about the ground.

In Arizona, for instance, the fossilized trunks have evidently been carried a long distance from where they originally grew.

In the Yellowstone the trees now stand where they grew and where they are entombed by the outpouring of various volcanic materials.

Now as the softer rocks surrounding them are gradually worn away they are left standing erect on the steep hillsides, just as they stood when they were living. In fact, it is difficult at a little distance to distinguish some of these fossil trunks from the lichen covered stumps of kindred living species. Such an aggregation of fossil trunks is therefore well entitled to be called a true fossil forest.

It should not be supposed, however, that these trees still retain their limbs and similar branches, for the mass of volcanic material falling on them stripped them down to bare, upright trunks.—Exchange.

HELP FOR HOMELY MEN.

Facial Decorations and Other Ways to Tone Down Ugliness.

If my face is too wide a beard lengthens it; if my face is too narrow it expands as if by magic with the addition of what have sometimes been affectionately called "mutton chops" or "siders."

If my nose projects, almost like a nose trying to escape from a face to which it has been sentenced for life, a pair of large, handsome mustaches will provide a proper entourage—a nest, so to speak, on which the nose rests contentedly, almost like a sitting hen; if my nose retreats backward into my face the aesthetic solution is obviously galways.

A stout man can do wonders with his appearance by adopting a pointed beard and a suit of clothes, shirt, necktie and stockings with pronounced vertical stripes. A thin man, on the other hand, becomes at once substantial in effect without being gross if he cultivates side whiskers and wears a suit of clothes, shirt, cravat and stockings with pronounced horizontal stripes.

If my face lacks fierceness and dynamic force it needs a brisk, arrogant mustache, or if it has too much of these qualities a long, sad, drooping mustache will counterbalance them.—Atlantic Monthly.

A Queen Who Was a King.

Only once in the history of the world has a queen been officially known as a king. This was in Hungary, when the Hungarians gave the name of king to their Queen Mary in order to avoid the infamy which the laws of that country cast upon those who are governed by women. She bore the title of King Mary till her marriage with Sigismund. After that she took the title of queen.

COST OF NEW DISTRICT HOSPITAL TO BE $35,000

The District Tuberculosis Hospital, to be erected on the Carlisle hill near Chillicothe by the counties of Fayette, Ross, Pike, Scioto, Highland and Jackson will cost $35,000. This was decided upon at a meeting held in Chillicothe and presided over by President of the Board, Harry P. Brown, of this city.

The amount to be expended was fixed by resolution which was adopted by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees, and the cost will be pro rated among the six counties according to their respective tax duplicates, and the date by which the money is to be paid in the hands of the Board is not later than January, 1916.

The resolution will be referred to the various boards of county commissioners for their approval, and work will begin on the institution as soon after January 1, 1916 as possible. The entire sum must be in the hands of the Board before the work is started, it is announced.

The Board accepted an offer made by the Women's Sewing Circle, of the Walnut Street M. E. Church, Chillicothe, to outfit a Ross county ward in the institution. It is understood that other churches in the various counties are considering a similar action.

Another meeting will be held in the near future for taking up the question of the Administration building, and it is expected that plans will be considered at that meeting.

OLD MAN TELLS PITIFUL STORY

So feeble that he could hardly walk, aged eighty-one years, and without a cent of money in his pocket, Edward Daley was put off of the C. H. & D. train Thursday afternoon and left stranded far from his destination, Jackson, Ky.

The old man tottered up town, reaching the home of Dr. C. A. Teeters on N. Main street, when he fell unconscious on the sidewalk.

There are always good Samaritans and the old man was carried into Dr. Teeters' office and given medical aid. Upon reviving he told the pitiful story of long months of illness in the hospital of Fargo, N. D., costing him all but a few dollars of his savings of $11,000. Having relatives in Jackson, Ky., he decided to go there, expecting to ride as far as his little money would permit and walk the rest of the way.

He had enough to reach this city and was starting up town to gain information when he fell unconscious.

He seemed to be a nice old fellow, and had been a railroad bridge carpenter most of his life.

Dr. Teeters' sympathies were deeply aroused and he entertained the old man at his own home over night and was instrumental in making up a purse sufficient to buy him a ticket to Jackson, Ky.

SONS OF VETERANS WILL COMPLIMENT VETERANS

The Sons of Veterans arranged at a largely-attended meeting of the order Friday night to give a complimentary entertainment to honor the Ladies' Circle G. A. R., The Women's Relief Corps, the B. H. Millikan Post and the John M. Bell Post, on the evening of November the 19th, at the Wonderland Theater.

A special film, "The Blood of Our Fathers," will be put on; Miss Forrest Allen of Milledgeville reads, and Miss Jean Hollingsworth sings.

It will be an entertainment of patriotic character most appreciated by the veterans and the auxiliaries.

LOCAL PHOTOGRAPHER HAS "DAYLIGHT" LAMP

Photographer Delbert C. Hays has just installed the General Electric Company's latest "daylight" lamp for use in taking pictures after night and which gives fully as satisfactory results as daylight photography.

The new light is a 3,000 candle power nitrogen, and the powerful rays are so filtered by shades that daylight effects are produced probably for the first time. The light is noiseless, safe and a great improvement over the old style arc lamp formerly used for photographic purposes.

NO. 107 NEARLY MEETS DISASTER

B. & O. passenger train No. 107, due in this city at 6:13 p. m., was nearly wrecked between Sabina and Wilmington, Thursday evening, when the connecting rod on the big engine was broken and the engine badly damaged.

The break occurred while the train was moving at a high rate of speed, but the engine stuck to the rails and was brought to a stop within 300 yards of the place where the break occurred. A serious wreck nearly resulted.

It was eleven o'clock before the train was pulled into Wilmington.

ALL READY FOR ASSOCIATION DAY

Teams have been chosen among members of the Dutch Treat Club and the young men of the Y. M. C. A. for the "drive" for new members for the Y. M. C. A. on "Association Day" which is Tuesday of the coming week, and all of the members of the teams will meet at the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening promptly at six o'clock for an oyster supper given by the Membership Committee and to complete final plans for the big day's work.

The various teams are announced as follows: Under "Gen." W. A. Tharp: Ed Pite, Capt. Henry Brownell, H. G. Coffman, R. C. Peddicord and Elmer Junk. Capt. Wm. Worthington—C. A. Reid, Rev. J. V. Stone, Rev. W. B. Gage, H. C. Ireland and Earl Barnett. Capt. M. E. Hitchcock—W. B. Rogers, Frank Kennedy, M. B. Shank, Bert Ellis and A. W. Duff. Capt. Robert Merriwether—Robert Dunn, Harold Hays, Clarence Hard, Amos Thornton and Earl Peterson. Capt. R. R. Kibler—not yet selected.

Under "Gen." Clarence Baer: Capt. Herbert Brownell, Glenn M. Pine, Alex. H. Ballard, Willard Willis, Dr. D. H. Rowe, Dr. O. D. Maddux, Capt. Walter Craig, Ed Pine, Dr. F. D. Woollard, Frank Christopher, Wm. McClain, Capt. Howard Griffiths, Rell G. Allen, W. C. Slagle, Ralph Penn, Dr. Carey Persinger, G. C. Kidner, Capt. Geo. Hitchcock, Joe C. Murphy, Phil Davis, J. E. McLean, Fred Schmidt, Frank Reichert, Capt. Robert McFadden, Robert Craig, Howard Harper, Howard Gregg, Neil Hoppes, Sherman Brownell.

The men will give all their time on Tuesday.

B. H. MILLIKAN POST ELECTS OFFICERS

The annual election of B. H. Millikan Post No. 92, Grand Army of the Republic, was held Friday night, and the old officers had served with such general satisfaction that upon motion made by Dr. E. C. Hamilton, the entire corps of officers were re-elected for the coming year.

The officers are: Commander, I. N. Rowe; vice Commander, E. W. Welsheimer; Junior Vice, John Arnold; Adjutant, R. H. Harrop; Quartermaster, Joe N. Wilson; Chaplain, John Near; Guard, Chas. Ramsay.

ASKS $30,000 FOR DEATH OF HER SON

Mrs. Mary H. Hurley, mother of Forrest A. Hurley, the young man who was electrocuted while attempting to use the telephone in Xenia, sometime ago, has sued the Springfield and Xenia Telephone Co., and the Dayton Power & Light Company for $30,000.

She claims the two companies used the same pole at one point and that the death of her son was due to the criminal negligence of both defendant companies.

AMATEUR PLAY AROUSES INTEREST

A Hundred and Fifty Local People Will Take Part in Fi Fi of the Toy Shop at the Empire, Monday.

"Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop," to be given at the Empire Theater next Monday night for the benefit of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, promises to be one of the biggest drawing cards of the winter season.

It is a musical extravaganza quite new and out of the ordinary, and as clean as it is pretty.

A hundred and fifty well known young people and children of Washington are in the cast; each star shines in his or her particular role and the musical numbers are particularly catchy.

The fantastic story of the play runs that Bonnie, played by Miss Ruth Grafton, the daughter of Tack Hammer, the old toymaker, wandering in the woods near her father's shop at the close of day, is cast into a magic sleep by the Sandman (Roscoe Kibler).

During her wonderful dreams of the Toy Shop Aurelia, a retired fairy personated by Mrs. Alex. H. Ballard, presents her with a bottle of fairy smelling salts with which she brings to life all the inmates of the Toy Shop. The Toy Folk have many wonderful, weird and beautiful adventures and the audience will enjoy their amusing revels and pretty scenes no less than does the dreaming Bonnie.

It is wonderfully entertaining to see well known people in the roles of the dolls and some of the acting is unusually clever amateur work.

The cast of characters includes, with Bonnie, the Fairy, and the Sandman, the old toymaker, Walter Patton; Ink Spot, black doll, Jane Paul; Fi-Fi, the French doll, Ada Woodward; Prince Lollypop, Mortimer Clasgens; Lieutenant Tinheart, Dick Saxton; Captain Barnacle, Emerson Chapman; Loosely Rag Doll, Dorothy Saxton; A Laughing Doll's Head, Wanda Wolford; the Man in the Moon, Howard Gray; A Talking

Doll, Marie Tharp; Bo Peep, Miss Jessie Leavell; a Japanese Doll, Maxine Kibler; Two Clowns, Earl Peterson and Rudolph Wolfe; Solo Dancer, Pauline Pine.

Then there are the Jumping Jacks Noah's Ark Animals, China Dolls, Paper Dolls, Live Letter Blocks, Bridesmaids, Fairies, Flower Girls, who put on all kinds of pretty fancy dances, and specialties.

Mrs. Mortimer Clasgens is the accompanist.

The play is put on under the personal direction of Harold M. Swift, and has been given with marked success in a number of adjoining towns as well as larger cities.

The seat sale is now on and it is expected that the house will be sold out by Monday night.

WHEN IS ROAD LEVY EFFECTIVE?

When does the two-mill road levy become effective?

This is the question which is now being investigated and will be announced within a short time after a ruling has been obtained.

It will then be known whether the first installment will be collected at the December collection, or next June.

WHISTLER'S BREAKFASTS.

They Were Famous Functions When the Artist Was in Funds.

An invitation to one of Mr. Whistler's "breakfasts" was prized by many persons almost as much as a royal command, more by some. Mr. Whistler brought together about his dainty, long, narrow breakfast table in its long, narrow room with pale yellow washed walls a symposium of those persons in London most noted for wit or endowed with rare original talent of some kind. Sprinkled here and there for the sake, no doubt, of half tones were others whose chief qualification was the power of chastened and judicious appreciation.

These symposiums were held by Whistler in his splendid studio, 33 Tite street, at present the studio of Sargent. Whistler did not steadily occupy that place, which a depleted treasury sometimes caused him to forsake temporarily. According to the widely known story, when the bailiffs came in to dispossess him for debt he pressed them into service as extra men to help serve one of his famous breakfasts, after which he would retire to a low, rambling workshop up an alleyway off the Fulham road. There in solitary quiet he would bring forth another masterpiece to startle the world and furnish him with the means of re-entering beautiful Tite street and taking up the thread of his more princely existence.

CREMATION IN INDIA.

The Brahman's Funeral Pyre and the Ceremony of Burning.

After the body of a Brahman has been anointed with sesamum oil the big toes are bound together and the two thumbs. It is then lashed to a litter made of two long parallel poles, to which are fastened seven transverse pieces of wood. The shroud is very simple, a large piece of cloth wrapped round the body and bound with ropes of straw. If the dead Brahman leaves a will his face is not covered; otherwise the shroud is brought up over the head.

The burning ground, or ghat, is usually near a river that those who have taken part in the ceremonies may purify themselves as quickly and as easily as possible. Before erecting the funeral pyre a shallow pit is dug and partially filled with dry wood; the body is covered with splinters of dry wood and sprinkled with panchagaria, an inflammable liquid, and placed on the pyre and covered with branches and roots, like a hut.

The nearest relative or heir then

takes a lighted taper and sets fire to the four corners of the pile and leaves at once to perform the ceremony of purification. The carriers, being of the lowest caste, remain until the body is entirely consumed.—Westminster Gazette.

Had to Cater to All.
"I don't like the way this hotel is run!" carped a peevish young traveling salesman.

"Neither do I," replied the landlord of Pruntytown tavern, "but I've got to entertain all the fools that come along as well as the sensible people."—Judge.

WORK NEARING COMPLETION ON NEW AUTOMATIC

Work on the new Automatic system of the Ohio State Telephone Company in this city and county, is progressing very satisfactorily, and within a very few days the local management expects to announce definitely the date upon which the "cut-over" or change from the old order of things to the new, will be made.

For months a corps of experts have been engaged in the work of installing the equipment of the new automatic, and telephone men throughout the state and adjoining states are watching the result here, where the very latest in modern apparatus is being installed, so that patrons of the new automatic are expected to have service equal to the very best.

Meanwhile all patrons are looking forward to the change from the old to the new system. The management will issue an announcement a few days before the cut-over is made, so that all may know, and it is expected that the change will be made in one night's time.

MEMORIAL.

Orah Reeder, daughter of Enos and Zilpah Reeder, was born in Green township, Fayette county, Ohio, March 24, 1858; died November 1, 1915 at Ashville, N. C., aged 57 years, 7 months and 7 days.

She was married to Oscar Brannen September 11th, 1884. To this union was born one son, Herbert, who grew to manhood and at the age of 22 years crossed the bar to join the father, who preceded him October 20th, 1900, thus severing the last earthly tie, that bound the little family together.

Her devotion to her loved ones was one of her marked characteristics, and was made doubly strong through the loss of her husband and son.

From that time on all her responsibilities were assumed in a grave conscientious manner and with a Christian spirit, for early in life she had accepted God as her Father, and united with the Friends church.

Later in life she removed her membership to Sugar Grove M. E. church with her husband, and remained a faithful worker for the Master until death.

Mrs. Brannen had a quiet, modest, retiring nature, but behind it all was a strong personality. She was true, always to be trusted, for her to make a friend was for her to keep one, and there are many today who feel that a beautiful flower from friendship's garden has been transferred to realms where flowers never fade. The majority of Mrs. Brannen's life has been spent in and around this city, except a few years spent in mission work in Mexico.

Her strength of character can be no better shown than in the courage she put forth in her last days on earth. Life was sweet to her as to all of us, and when she found that she only had a short time to live, she bravely and firmly faced the situation.

Going to Ashville, N. C., for special treatment in order that she might again take her place with her loved ones in the work she had so learned to love, "winning souls to Christ" Although her poor frail body went down before the mortal soul, yet her spirit came off conqueror, for the Lord was with her as she went down in the valley of death, but we have learned—

In hours of faith—
The truth to flesh, and sense unknown,
That life is ever Lord of Death,
And love can never lose its own.

With this trust we lay her to rest amid flowers, and surrounding evergreens, content to leave the earth, rather desiring, as she said to depart and be with Christ. Death was but the opening of a door to heavenly mansions.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Dancing Mania.

The "dancing mania" of the middle ages came on the heels of the great plague known as the "black death." It was some sort of nervous disease and is now supposed to have been what is known as "St. Vitus' dance." It began in the year 1374 at Aix-la-Chapelle and spread all over Germany, the Netherlands and Italy. The dancers formed circles hand in hand and appearing to have lost all reason continued dancing, regardless of the bystanders, for hours together until in their wild delirium they fell to the ground in sheer exhaustion. Panting and foaming at the mouth, they would suddenly spring up and begin the dance again, to be again exhausted, and so on until they died. The mania involved millions of people.

Old Saws and Sayings.

A few old sayings on the subject of food come to us rather as a surprise in

Apropos of this remark it is amusing to note that "manners" was the name given to the remnants of a meal. These came to the servants as official perquisites; hence our well worn expression before emptying a dish, "Leave the last slice (or whatever it may be) for manners."

Weather Effects.

The weather affects man in more ways, it appears, than many suspect. For example, it is believed that pressure variation due to fluctuating winds have peculiar pathological effects, that certain electrical conditions of the air induced by low atmospheric pressure have a pathological effect on nervous subjects and that solar radiation has peculiar effects which vary according to the season.

HARD PRESSED BY ENEMY

Entente Powers in a Month's Time
Could Throw Half Million Men Into Serbia — Anglo-French Forces Attacking Bulgars at Southern End of
Front—Germans Make Gains in Champagne District.

London, Nov. 6.—The Germans, continuing their successes in the Champagne region of northern France, claim to have recaptured a trench northeast of Le Mesnil which the French had held for nearly a fortnight. Likewise they repulsed with heavy losses to the French an attack on positions recently taken by the Germans north of Massiges. Paris claims a repulse for the new German attacks in the Champagne and reports an air raid on buildings at Dorach used for the manufacture of suffocating gases.

In the Dvinsk district the Russians remain on the offensive, but their attacks have been fruitless and have resulted in very heavy losses for them, Berlin claims. In Volhynia, General Von Linsingen has driven the Russians back northwest of Czartorysk. A German success at Sienikowice also is reported.

Geneva reports that snows in the Carnic Alps have brought the Austrians and Italians to a standstill in their operations in that section.

The Serbian northern army is being slowly ground down before the combined pressure of the Austro-German and Bulgarian forces. The fate of Nish hangs by a hair, and it is only at the southern end of the battle front that the Bulgars are meeting with any reverses. There, according to reports, the British are co-operating with the French, but, as heretofore, these reports are unofficial and fragmentary and it can not be said authoritatively whether the British are in touch with their new enemy.

If the Bulgar-Teuton tide is turned, the best opinion here is that it will be some weeks hence, involving a period of uncertainty, such as preceded the stand before Paris and on the Yser. But giving the entente powers a month's time, it is argued that they can throw 500,000 and perhaps 500,000 men into Serbia, not including Russians, and with such a force not only dispute the advance of the central powers, but contest Bulgaria's occupation of Serbian Macedonia.

The Turks continue sporadically active in the Dardanelles region, as is recorded in a British official communication from the Gallipoli peninsula. This says the Turks launched attacks against the British right in the Anzac region, but that they did not dent the British line.

The Montenegrins report the recapture of Troglav from the Austrians, whom they claim to be holding on the border.

ZAIMIS STEPS OUT OF POWER

London, Nov. 6.—Apparently determined that M. Zaimis shall remain in the office of prime minister of Greece, King Constantine urged him to retain the premiership. According to Athens dispatches, however, M. Zaimis declined to acquiesce in the king's desire, whereupon the king called a council of ministers, the deliberations of which may or may not determine whether Greece is to align herself against Bulgaria or persist in her attitude of "benevolent neutrality," which means that though the allied troops may cross her soil, her armies shall not aid them in driving the Bulgarians from Serbia.

M. Zaimis' refusal to retain the post, it is stated, was on the ground that although he had provisionally accepted the premiership to ease the situation, he was determined, as he had previously declared, to abstain from taking an active part in internal politics.

80 PERSONS ON BURNING SHIP

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 6. — With sixty-one passengers and a crew of twenty-one on board, the steamer Fort Bragg, bound for San Francisco from Guaymas, Mexico, is ashore and afire on the rocky Lower California coast at San Jose Del Cabo, according to a wireless message received at the Port Loma navy wireless station from Rear Admiral Winslow, aboard the flagship San Diego. Admiral Winslow's message stated that the Fort Bragg had wirelessed to the San Diego that the steamer had struck on the rocks about two miles north of Cape San Lucas.

The captain of the Fort Bragg urged that assistance come as soon as possible, and he said that fire was raging aboard and that to add to the danger a heavy sea was running and the ship was in imminent danger of going to pieces. Admiral Winslow's message stated that the San Diego was proceeding to the scene under full speed.

MOTHER OF 9 IN YEAR

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 6. — A birth record that will surpass any other in the world was established by Mrs. Gither Drewry of Spencer county, according to news received in Lexington. Mrs. Drewry, who is about thirty years old, is the mother of nine children, seven of whom are living. Eight months ago there were born to Mrs. Drewry five children, three boys and two girls. The girls died, but the boys are doing nicely. Yesterday there were born four boys; all of them doing well.

SAYS OSTRICHES EXCEED SPEED LIMIT.

The latest piece of freak California legislation to be proposed is an anti ostrich ordinance of Los Angeles. The reason stated for the ordinance is that the birds violate the speed laws.

TAFT WOULD BE PREPARED

Boston, Nov. 6.—"Reasonable preparedness" was advocated here by Former President Taft. "I am a pacifist," he declared, "but I do not believe that we should remain entirely helpless because we assume that all the people of the earth will treat us with justice. I believe we should be prepared to such an extent that no nation will take advantage of us."

RUSSIAN SOAKED

Petrograd, Nov. 6.—Absence from the fortress of Kovno during the fighting there and inadequate preparation of the defense were charged against General Gregorieff, who was commandant of the fortress when it fell, in the courtmartial proceedings at Dvinsk, which resulted in his receiving a sentence of fifteen years at hard labor and the loss of all his rights.

HASKITCHENER QUIT CABINET?

London, Nov. 6.—Minister of War Kitchener is away. His absence is officially declared to be "temporary," with the supplementary statement that he was absent on "public duty." Premier Asquith is acting war minister.

Rumors began to fly thick and fast as soon as Lord Kitchener's absence became known. Hints that he has resigned, either voluntarily or under pressure, have predominated in the discussions concerning him. These hints were based chiefly upon the fact that for the first time since the war began it is deemed necessary for the premier or anyone else to assume the duties of war minister for him, as on the frequent former occasions when Lord Kitchener made trips to the continent the man next to him in rank did his work.

The guess is ventured by a few that in view of the German boast that the road to Constantinople also opens the road to Suez, Egypt and India, Kitchener may have been sent to either of these two latter countries to make preparations for all emergencies.

Amateur weather prophets are agreeing about the coming winter, whether it will be moderate or the real thing, quite as well as the official war reporters, but no better. Some say that the woods, the late flowers and weeds indicate an open winter. Both parties are noting the antics of the squirrels, the condition of chestnut burs—where they can find any—and of the walnut hulls and the flight of migratory birds. Probably there will be a chorus of "I told you so," good and bad. A few, very few, record blizzard days and a few, on a stretch, of melting sunshine stamp themselves on the memory. After it's all over the best evidence lies in the good days for cutting ice, for sledding across lots and the state of the wood pile and coal bin. Whether "half the wood and half the hay" stand plus or minus on Candlemas day (Feb. 2) is a pretty good test of how Jack Frost has acted during winter's strenuous weeks.

Very many school children never know until it is too late what a glorious privilege it is to go to school. Some of them could perhaps be helped in getting this knowledge earlier and in time to do some good. We have been inclined in this country to make a fetish of routine education and jam all kinds of material through one mold. Most systems of education put the "idea" before the "thing," and all young minds cannot grasp the unseen. For the kindergarten stage this evil has been abated, and the child learns through the eyes. Industrial schools do the same thing in a way, for the learner soon discovers that oral or book rules must be mastered to insure success. Some one in a position to know the value of school privileges has the responsibility of helping the untutored boy and girl to realize the truth. Somewhere in some school or in some classroom of the average school there is a light burning for the dullest child mind, and it is the duty of some experienced guide to lead errant or stumbling footsteps in that direction.

We all know what happens "when Greek meets Greek," but the classic isle has often gone to the wall when her warriors went against other nations.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take
Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

VILLA LIED THAT'S ALL

Four Americans Reported Killed Held By Villa.

WERE NOT HIT BY SHELL.

Two Physicians and Their Chauffeurs, Reported by Villa to Have Lost Their Lives While Treating Wounded Soldiers, Are Alive and Well. Were Seen by Americans Who Have Just Arrived at Border.

Naco, Ariz., Nov. 6.—Reported dead by General Villa, it has just been disclosed that Drs. James Miller and R. H. Tighen and the two American chauffeurs, A. L. Wilson and A. D. Polant, are alive and well in Cananea, where they are prisoners of Villa. This, it is said, is admitted by Villa himself.

Americans reaching the border denied the story told by Villa to the effect that the Americans had been killed by a Carranza shrapnel shell while taking supplies to aid the Villa wounded on the battlefield. Dr. Fred K. H. Wickman, who said he had been held a prisoner of the Villistas while coming to the border, asserted that he saw the American prisoners at Villa Verde, south of Agua Prieta, following the battle, and all are alive and well. George Shaw, an American truck driver, who took supplies to the Villa troops at Villa Verde, also returned with the information that he saw the Americans alive.

Officials of the Cananea Consolidated Copper company then took the matter up with Villa and asked him to release the men so the doctors could return to their duties at the Cananea hospital, informing the general that his patients could not be cared for without the doctors.

Villa assured the mining officials the four men were alive and were already at Cananea, and said that he made a mistake in reporting them dead; that he had learned since that the four men killed were American teamsters who accompanied him from the state of Chihuahua.

FOUND DEAD.
Lima, O., Nov. 6.—Stuart Moore, thirty-four, head of a local taxicab company, was found dead in bed. Heart failure was given as the cause by the coroner.

LOST AND FOUND.
FOUND—One night lock key, Friday morning. Owner call at this office and get same by paying for this ad. 26113

Just what Villa had in mind in reporting the death of the two doctors and chauffeurs is not known. Some advance the suggestion that he wished to hold the doctors for service in his army.

Villa left Naco for Cananea, where a large number of his men have been sent. Meantime official announcement from Carranza sources is to the effect that Carranza is rushing all the troops he can muster to Sonora, in an effort to overwhelm Villa and his forces.

FIRST NAVAL ORDERS SENT BY WIRELESS

Washington, Nov. 6.—Secretary Daniels transmitted the first naval order ever sent by wireless telephone to Rear Admiral Usher at the New York navy yard. From his desk in the navy department the secretary talked to the commandant of the New York yard by way of the big radio towers at Arlington and ordered a report on repairs to the dreadnaught New York. Navy officials say the achievement brings closer the day when a secretary of the navy may sit at his desk in Washington and talk to the fleet commanders all over the world.

BROOKS RESIGNS

Cleveland, Nov. 6.—John Granam Brooks of Cambridge, Mass., for sixteen years its president, resigned at the opening of the sixteenth annual convention of the National Consumers' league here. He gave ill health as the reason. His resignation was accepted. Brooks is an attorney and a famous writer on economics.

ELECTION MIXUP

Fremont, O., Nov. 6.—A peculiar development in Tuesday's election came to light when it became known that voters in Rice township elected Moses Gross and Joseph Young both to be justices of the peace and constables. The secretary of state will be asked for a ruling as to whether the men may legally hold both offices.

19 BOMBS FOUND

Cleveland, Nov. 6.—Nineteen dynamite bombs with a partially burned attached fuse were found 150 feet from the main plant of the Theodore Kuntz company, cabinet makers, where 1,800 men are on strike for higher pay.

WINS BY TWO

Dayton, Nov. 6.—With two votes to the good, John R. Flotron, endorsed by the citizens' committee, was declared the winner over Willard Baringer, Socialist candidate, in the race for city commissioner, by the official count.

One hundred and thirty-four votes after the British lion quit trying to boss this country and hauled down the union jack at Yorktown representatives of England were over here suing for a loan to maintain national integrity. Well, we didn't throw it up to the Britons that times have changed. They can see that for themselves.

FREIGHT WRECK ON D. T. & I.

The worst freight wreck in many months occurred on the D. T. & I. at a point 100 yards south of Elm street crossing, about nine o'clock Saturday morning, when four cars and caboose of south bound through freight No. 55 were wrecked and the track torn up for a distance of more than 200 feet.

Three of the four cars were load-ed and two of the cars were badly broken and twisted. It was neces-sary to call the wreck train from Springfield.

Passenger train No. 5, due here at 9:50 a. m. was tied up until about two o'clock, when the wreck was cleared away and traffic resumed.

CHARLES WARNER MAY LAND OFFICE

Columbus, O., November 6.—That Governor Willis is seriously consid-ering the appointment of Charles T. Warner as a member of the state utilities commission to succeed Ol-iver H. Hughes of Hillsboro, Demo-cratic, was indicated at the State House Friday.

Warner was a close second in the race for mayor of Columbus Tues-day. He was formerly a member of the local civil service commission. He is a lawyer.

The governor is said to be cast-ing about for a Democrat for the utilities commission who is not too closely aligned with the Demo-cratic organization. Warner is a Democrat and he fought the organi-zation in the municipal campaign.

Mr. Warner is a former Fayette county man and his appointment to such a high post of duty would be a recognition of fitness as would be pleasing indeed to our local folks.

SPANGLER AND FREER IN CITY

Mr. N. G. Spangler, former Divi-sion Freight Agent of the B. & O. S. W. railroad with headquarters at Cincinnati, and his successor, Mr. P. D. Freer, of Chillicothe, were in the city Friday morning, and while here met many local citizens.

Mr. Spangler is now engaged in the insurance business in Colum-bus, and for many years had been connected with the B. & O.

Mr. Freer is a man of wide ex-perience in his line, and a man of pleasing personality.

A TRIBUTE.

In sad but loving memory of my dear wife, Mattie Higgins, who died November 6th, 1912;

Three long sad years ago today, God took my dear wife away;

Only God knows how I miss her. God called her home, it was his will—

But in my heart she lingers still. Her memory is as dear today. As in the hour she passed away.

From loving husband,
GEORGE HIGGINS.

A new sanitary code requires the medical inspection of all persons em-ployed in places "where food and drink are prepared, cooked, mixed, baked, ex-posed, bottled, packed, handled, stored, manufactured, offered for sale or sold." This covers New York city restaurants and hotels, bakeries and shops and stores where food ready for consump-tion might be infected if handled by diseased persons. The reform will have to be extended to dwellings in order not to discriminate, and, while it will bring hardship to very many people, the common sense of the mass will probably rally to its support and make it effective as a health promoter.

SECT. DANIELS SUFFERS LOSS

Raleigh, N. C., November 6.—The entire plant and buildings of the News and Observer owned by the Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels, was destroyed by fire which started shortly after 6 o'clock this morning.

A large printing establishment is also a complete loss. Several small stores are either partially or com-pletely destroyed.

The business manager of the paper was painfully injured. First esti-mates of the property loss are about $150,000.

It was the second time the plant had been burned since Mr. Daniels has been secretary of the navy, the first fire having occurred April 24, 1913.

STANLEY MAY LOSE OFFICE

By Associated Press.
Louisville, Ky., November 6.—A. O. Stanley, Democrat, was leading, his Republican opponent, Edwin P. Morrow, by the small margin of 671 votes today, in the contest for gov-ernor of Kentucky.

Official returns from the remain-ing four counties gave him this ma-jority.

The chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee still holds to his claim of victory for Mr. Morrow.

MISSING MEN REACH BORDER

By Associated Press.
Naco, Arizona, November 6.—H. R. Thigpen and James Miller, American doctors, and two chauff-eurs, A. L. Wilson and J. D. Blyant, who were reported by General Villa to have been shot, arrived here to-day from Villa Verde, 22 miles south of Sonora.

POSTOFFICE POINT.

There is No Mail Station Located on This Arctic Ice Pack.

Almost due north of Bering strait is a point in the solid north pack that always extends much farther south than the pack at the eastward or at the westward. This point is naturally variable, according to the heat of the summer and the severity of the previous winter, but it does not move more than a few degrees. For fifty or sev-enty-five years this point of ice has been spoken of by the arctic whal-men as "Postoffice point."

This does not mean that there is a postoffice there, but the significance of the name is because the whaling fleets usually are divided, some ships going considerably east of Postoffice point and others west of it. Ships that have been east of it cruise along the edge of the pack and very fre-quently meet ships that have been to the west of it, and the meeting point for some reason has always been in the neighborhood of Postoffice point. It was here therefore that the ships used to meet, after being separated for many weeks, and exchange news and gossip.

The solid north pack comes pretty close to Point Barrow and extends in an irregular line from Point Barrow to Postoffice point. Much of this ice "looks as though it has been there from the year 1," as one of the whal-ing captains has expressed it. Bear-ing in mind the fact that Postoffice point is always to be found in ap-proximately the same latitude and longitude, it seems as though there must of necessity be land back of it, although of course there is a possi-bility that there may be a very solid pack of ice instead of land, held in place by comparatively shallow water. —New York Times.

The Story of a Long Name.

A northern man who was visiting in Baltimore stopped on the street one day to have his shoes polished. A bright eyed little black boy stepped forward to give the desired shine. Be-coming interested in the little chap, the northerner asked his name, to which the boy promptly replied:

"Gen. sah."

After a few moments of silence the northerner continued, "I suppose that is an abbreviation for General."

The word "abbreviation" gave the little fellow pause. However, he was equal to the occasion and recovered himself. "No, sah," he said; "tain't 'abbreviat' dat. Ma shore 'nough name an' thesis xxx, 33. So Shall My Right-ous Answer for Me in Time to Come Washington Carter, but der jest calls me Gen for short." —Youth's Com-panion.

A Paradoxical River.

On the African shore, near the gulf of Aden and connecting the lake of Assal with the main ocean, may be found one of the most wonderful riv-ers in the world. This curiosity does not flow to but from the ocean toward inland. The surface of Lake Assal itself is nearly 700 feet below the mean tide, and it is fed by this para-doxical river, which is about twenty-two miles in length. It is highly prob-able that the whole basin which the lagoon partly fills was once an arm of the sea, which became separated therefrom by the dumping of loose sand. The inflowing river has a limited vol-ume, being fullest, of course, at high tide, and has filled the basin to such an extent that evaporation and supply exactly balance each other.

Three True Steels.

Iron and carbon steel, vanadium steel and tungsten steel are pointed out by Professor J. O. Arnold, British metallurgist, as the three true steels. The second kind is iron and carbon steel with 5 per cent of vanadium, the iron carbide having ceased to ex-ist, and vanadium carbide being pres-ent, and the third kind is iron and carbon steel having 11.5 per cent of tungsten, the iron carbide having been expelled by the tungsten. Iron and carbon steel hardens at 730 degrees C., vanadium steel just below 1,450 de-grees, its melting point, and tungsten steel at 850 degrees to 1,200 degrees. —San Francisco Chronicle.

His Strong Point.

Employer—What special qualifica-tions have you for business? Applicant—Every place where I ever worked I reduced the firm's expenses before left. Employer—Ah, an efficiency ex-pert! Applicant—No; I usually started in at $8 a week and when I quit I was getting $5.—Judge.

Babies' White Clothes.

According to a London oculist, if white clothing for babies could be abolished, in a generation there would be a 20 per cent decrease in the num-ber of persons with defective vision.

The Heaviest Meal.

"When do you take the heaviest meal of the day?" asked a bachelor of a mar-ried man.
"When my wife cooks it," came the reply.
